$6,000 DAMAGE VERDICT GIVEN COUNTY WOMAN

Goldie E. Stevens, York Springs R. D., was awarded $6,000 damages by an Adams County jury Wednesday afternoon as the result of a suit she brought following an auto accident four miles north of Biglerville on November 5, 1955.

The jury, which returned with its verdict at 3:55 o'clock after about two hours' deliberation, found against both of the two defendants, Naomi Chronister, Gardner R. 1, and Jewell Gantz, Aspers R. 1.

The accident occurred according to the testimony, near the Gantz home. Gantz had pulled out from his driveway in a truck and was proceeding along the road when he heard a crash behind him. Mrs. Chronister, proceeding in the same direction as Gantz had collided with the Stevens car coming in the opposite direction.

Tractor Case Tried

The jury's verdict at first noted that $3,000 of the damages should be paid by each of the defendants. That was muddled into a finding in favor of Goldie Stevens in the sum of $6,000 and against Mrs. Chronister and Gantz for the same sum.

Trial began this morning in the action in assumpsit brought by George E. McGlaughlin, Gettysburg R. 4, against Philip J. Miller, also of Gettysburg R. 4. At noon the testimony in the case had been cancelled and following the attorney's arguments and charge by Judge Chauncey Deputy this afternoon, the jury began its deliberations. The matter involves sale of a tractor at a Miller sale. McGlaughlin contends the cylinder block of the tractor was broken. Miller contends that he had no knowledge of the damage.

Sentence Suspended

The jury hearing the Miller case includes Guy Deardorff, Aspers; Martha Knecht, 200 E. Middle St.; Mrs. Margie Hartman, Biglerville R. 2; Mrs. Jean C. Whisler, East Berlin; Mrs. Myrtle Elledge, Gettysburg R. 4; Gladys V. Helser, Gettysburg R. 2; John Bucher Sr., Cashtown; Mrs. Miriam Gulse, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. Ada White, Fairfield R. 1; Mrs. Florence Smith, York Springs; Myles L. Starnier, Biglerville R. D., and John Gordon, Hampton.

Miguel Negron, Harrisburg, charged with driving during suspension, was given a suspended sentence by Judge W. C. Sheely on condition he pay $150 for use of

BULLEIT QUOTES OLD LAW TO WIN NON-SUIT TODAY

An act of the legislature passed May 23, 1887, forced a "compulsory non-suit" Wednesday afternoon in the action in trespass brought by H. Walter Rens, Akron, Ohio, against Edith F. Baker, administratrix of the estate of Samuel H. Mattingly, late of Gettysburg.

Trial of the case had started with Borough Policeman Raymond Menges testifying to being called to the scene of an accident May 8, 1952, at the intersection of Carlisle St. and Lincoln Square.

Officer Menges said he found the late Samuel J. Mattingly, driving a 1931 Ford roadster, parked on the square. H. Walter Rens was near the curb and apparently in great pain. The ambulance arrived and removed him to the Warner Hospital.

Death Sealed Lips

Rens, a manufacturer's representative for waitresses' and waiters' uniforms, was called to the stand. He was to testify to walking across the intersection when he was struck by a car, but Rens never had an opportunity to testify.

Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, representing the Mattingly estate, asked for a conference at sidebar. He presented a law book. Court recessed while further study of the law was made in the law library.

After that Judge Chauncey Deputy ordered a compulsory non-suit.

Rens was the only witness to the accident other than Mattingly. The 1887 law provides that "where death seals the lips of one party to a dispute the law seals the lips of the other."

Rens could not testify, so the jury could obtain no details on what occurred in the accident, for he was the only surviving witness.

Rens later in the day was searching for possible witnesses so he might bring the case again, if he can find some.

DISLOCATES SHOULDER

Mrs. Robert Gladhill, 35, Littlestown R. 2, was treated at the Warner Hospital for a dislocation of her right shoulder received Wednesday when she slipped and fell.

YOUTH FACES HIT-RUN COUNT

A young Hanover R. 5 motorist was arrested in Hanover early Wednesday, about an hour and a half after his automobile crashed into a parked car in McSherrystown.

McSherrystown Chief of Police Mannard Masemer said a car operated by George P. Gladfelter, 18, ran into the auto owned by Mrs. Ella Pascoe, 600 Main Street, about 1 a.m. The Pascoe auto was parked on Sixth St.

Gladfelter, Masemer said, drove away without revealing his identity but pieces of his car—a hub cap, fender skirt and part of a bumper—were scattered at the scene.

Gladfelter returned to the crash scene later in another car but fled when a resident of the neighborhood approached, the police chief said. The youth was apprehended by Masemer while driving his damaged car. After brief questioning, Gladfelter admitted it was his car which struck the Pascoe vehicle, Masemer reported.

Masemer estimated damage to the parked car at $290 and to Gladfelter's car at $150. He said a charge of hit-run driving would be filed against Gladfelter before Justice of the Peace Larry Reth, McSherrystown.

TWO CANDIDATES FILE

P. W. Rebert, defeated for tax collector in Franklin Twp., and Walter Mehrling, successful candidate for tax collector in Cumberland Twp., are the first two candidates to file expense accounts with the county election board following the general election. Both spent "less than $150." December 5 is the last day to file expense accounts, the election board said.

FAMILY COMEDY AT HIGH SCHOOL FRIDAY EVENING

Dress rehearsal was held Wednesday evening at the Gettysburg High School for the annual fall play, "Time Out For Ginger," to be presented to the school auditorium by a cast of ten Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The play is a story of a family with high school-age children and the complications that develop after the banker father gives a lecture at the local high school on self-fulfillment. The youngest of his three daughters, "Ginger," decides to go out for football under the stimulation of her Dad's advice. As a result, the father's job is jeopardized and the social life of elder sisters is "blighted" but all ends happily after a series of riotous mishaps that the audience should find highly entertaining.

The cast includes James Bricker as "Ginger's" father; Sandra Holoka as his wife; Beth Korte as "Ginger"; Jean Wells and Ann McElhenny as other daughters in the family; Ed Nowicki and Fred Smith as boy friends of two of the sisters; Ronald Ditzler as the high school principal; Sidney Welkert, as the bank president, and Nancy Elledge as the family maid. Students are selling tickets at 60 cents each for adults and 35 cents for children. Tickets will be available at the box office Friday evening.

Committee chairmen for the play are: Richard Drach, stage manager; Sara Snyder, scenery; Jean Griest, program; Rita King, make-up; Joseph Sharrach, publicist; Mary Lou Kuykendall, tickets; Marjorie Gilbert, ushers; Donna Fissel, properties; Shirley Patterson, costumes, and Roger Craver, lighting. Misses Ruth McElhenny and Ann Pusey are directing.

CHOICE EXAMPLE OF U. S. JUSTICE CITED BY JUDGE

Thirty-two of the 58 jurors called for duty during the November term of court were finally excused late Wednesday evening and Judge W. C. Sheely took advantage of the opportunity to "brag," as he put it, about the cooperative activities of the jurors and the members of the Adams County Bar.

He also noted in the course of his remarks that at least one incident during the current term "was an outstanding example of how the American system of justice works."

The jurist, in thanking the jurors for their work during the last two weeks, said: "I want to brag a little about what you and the attorneys, witnesses, etc., have done. We have had possibly the heaviest case load in the history of this court during the current term. Yet now it is apparent that we will be able to get through the term within its two-week limit. This has been possible only because of the full cooperation of everyone. We are deeply indebted to Judge Chauncey Deputy who came here so that two trials could be held simultaneously. Without his efforts it would have been impossible to complete the cases in the short time allotted. And we are indebted to you jurors for your cooperation."

Cooperated Fully

"To keep the courts operating a lot of shifting around was required and there we must pay tribute to the members of the county bar. It takes a lot to get a case ready for trial. Witnesses must be notified and arrangements made all down the line."

"But counsel cooperated beautifully and as a result we were able (Continued On Page 3)

LEIST AWARDED $301 BY JURY ON 1953 FIGHT

An Adams County jury this afternoon awarded Allen "Whitey" Leist, S. Washington St., $301.40 damages for injuries received when he and Ellis Smith Jr., W. Middle St., defendant in the suit, tangled in the Blue Parrot Tea room on Christmas Eve, 1953.

Testimony in the case showed a variance in opinions between witnesses. All were agreed that Smith was a bartender at the Blue Parrot on December 23, 1953. There was testimony that Smith and James A. Aumen, then proprietor of the establishment, week in a dispute that evening.

Leist testified that he worked December 24, came into the Blue Parrot late that afternoon and when asked by Aumen or Mrs. Aumen to help Aumen in the "putting out" of Smith, Leist was struck over the head, he believed by Smith, and suffered head injuries which led to his being bedfast for more than a month, and suffering headaches and pain for some time afterward.

Tells Of Scuffle

Aumen also was agreed on the time Leist first arrived, and that he was helped to eject Smith and that Smith later returned, and the argument continued.

Spy Says Executed Rosenberg Gave Satellite Data To Reds

By LEONARD A. UNGER, LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Robert Morris, counsel for a Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said today convicted atomic spy David Greenglass told him that Julius Rosenberg carried earth satellite information to the Russians in the late 1940s.

Greenglass, imprisoned in the federal penitentiary here, was a brother-in-law of Rosenberg, executed in 1953 as an atomic spy. "Greenglass told us that Rosenberg was stealing secrets about space platforms and atomic-powered airplanes," Morris said.

Interview 2 Spies

Morris interviewed Greenglass and Harry Gold, also a convicted atomic spy, in the penitentiary prior to a public hearing planned later at Philadelphia.

The 1½-hour interview with Greenglass and Gold, Morris said, also brought out that a Soviet agent had provided anti-missile secrets to the Russians.

Morris declined to identify the agent but said he would do so during the hearing when it can be made part of an official record.

Morris placed particular emphasis on what he said was a Russian demand on Gold that Gold's espionage efforts go into actual processes rather than theories.

"Gold told us that the Soviet kept hammering at him to get scientific secrets from us," the Senate subcommittee counsel said.

Save Reds Time

He said Gold quoted his Soviet bosses as saying: "We (Russia) can do it ourselves but we haven't the time. You, by obtaining this information, save us time."

Morris said both Greenglass and Gold cited specific instances in which information on U.S. projects (Continued On Page 2)

BANKERS ELECT ELMER R. HOKE AS PRESIDENT

Elmer R. Hoke, assistant cashier of the Biglerville National Bank, was elected president of the Adams County Bankers Association at its annual ladies' night and election dinner Wednesday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg.

He succeeds C. Robert Brothers, of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, New Oxford, who was unable to be present at Wednesday's session because of injuries received in an auto accident some time ago.

Ray T. Harner, assistant cashier of the Littlestown National Bank, was named vice president; Mrs. Virginia Raffensperger, of the Biglerville National Bank, secretary; Richard Smyers, assistant cashier of the People's State Bank, East Berlin, treasurer.

Named To Council

Named to the council of administration were retiring President Brothers; Dale Crum of the Bendersville National Bank; Ray J. Kitzmiller of the First National Bank of Gettysburg; Chester Byers of the Littlestown National Bank; and Kenneth Slomaker, of the Fairfield National Bank.

Attorney John A. MacPhail was the principal speaker. After expressing the appreciation of those connected with the Warner Hospital drive to the bankers, "for without your support the campaign to raise $350,000 to build another wing to the hospital would not have been a success," Attorney MacPhail said:

"Perhaps we in the United States are overemphasizing time. We are perhaps letting time tyrannize us. We want to get the last burst of speed possible. We want cars with more and more horsepower, no matter that the speed limit still says 50 miles an hour. (Continued On Page 12)

NINE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH NEAR HAMPTON

Both autos were demolished and nine persons were injured when two cars collided Wednesday evening at 5:40 o'clock at the intersection of the East Berlin-Heidelsburg Rd. with the Hanover-York Springs Rd. a half-mile north of Hampton.

Critically hurt in the crash was James Pensinger, 23, Shippensburg, who was admitted as a patient at the Hanover Hospital with head injuries including a possible fractured skull. He was riding in the right front seat of one of the two cars.

State police said William F. Thompson, 32, 207 N. Queen St., Shippensburg, was driving a 1955 Pontiac west on the East Berlin-Heidelsburg Rd. Thompson, Pensinger and two other men in Thompson's car were said to be plastered employed by a Shippensburg concern enroute home after working at York during the day.

Use Four Ambulances

Thompson's car, according to the state officers, entered the intersection and struck the side of a 1957 Chevrolet being driven south on the York Springs-Hanover Rd. by John W. Slaybaugh, 61, New Oxford R. 1, enroute home from Harrisburg where Slaybaugh and the passengers in his car are employed.

Damage was estimated at $2,000 to the Thompson auto and $2,500 to the Slaybaugh's vehicle. Both were described as demolished by the impact.

Four ambulances, York Springs, New Oxford, Gettysburg and Hanover, were dispatched to the scene. In addition, Dr. Reginald T. Gobel, Hanover, removed two of the less seriously injured persons to his office in his station wagon.

Has Leg Broken

JR. RED CROSS WILL PROVIDE HOLIDAY GIFTS

The Junior Red Cross Council at its meeting Wednesday evening at Gettysburg High School undertook a long list of holiday projects including the providing of 50 Christmas gift packages for veterans and servicemen in hospitals.

The Juniors also made plans to provide 100 Thanksgiving favors for New Cumberland depot, 200 Christmas favors for Lebanon Veterans' Hospital and New Cumberland, 50 Christmas tree balls from each of the eight school chapters, five pounds of hard candy from each school chapter for the Lebanon Veterans' Hospital, 10 Christmas centerpieces for Lebanon and unlimited quantities of Christmas cookies.

The 50 gift packages for the hospitalized veterans and servicemen are part of the 150 the Adams County Chapter of the Red Cross has been asked to provide.

Drive Opens December 2

Wednesday's meeting was well attended with all school units excepting Biglerville High School represented. Sylvia Brent of Gettysburg High School was in charge of games.

It was announced the annual Junior Red Cross membership drive will open December 2 and will continue through December 13 throughout the county under the leadership of Mrs. Bernice Bailey, near Gettysburg, Junior Red Cross chairman for the county chapter.

Teacher advisers attended Wednesday's meeting included Mrs. Ruth Wisler and Miss Mary Hartman of Gettysburg High School and Mrs. Otto Kreuger, Fairfield, Larry Fair, president of the Junior Red Cross Council of the county, presided.

Election of officers was delayed until the December meeting to be held at New Oxford.

DEATH PENALTY FOR MOON IS COMMUTED BY GOV. LEADER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader today commuted the death sentence of Norman W. Moon to life imprisonment and ordered him committed to an institution for the criminally insane.

Moon, 32, Conneville, was under sentence to be executed Dec. 2 for the slaying of a Warren County judge.

"The State Board of Pardons unanimously has recommended that the death sentence of Norman W. Moon be commuted to life imprisonment and that Moon be transferred to an institution for the criminally insane," Leader said in his statement.

"After careful consideration of the Board of Pardons' review of this case and detailed discussion with Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride I have accepted the Board of Pardons' recommendation."

"Moon committed a brutal crime for which he must pay the penalty; certainly in killing a judge he assaulted the very foundations upon which justice is based."

"But—as the Board of Pardons emphasizes—he must pay the penalty in strict accordance with the civilized administration of criminal justice."

"Two groups of respected and qualified psychiatrists have found Moon to be mentally ill."

"The Board of Pardons could not in conscience ignore the considered judgment."

GEIN ENTERS INSANITY PLEA

WAUTOMA, Wis. (AP)—Edward Gein, admitted butcher-slayer of a middle-aged business woman, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity when he was arraigned today on a charge of first-degree murder. He was ordered held without bond for trial in Circuit Court.

Judge Boyd Clark, after accepting the plea, found probable cause that the crime had been committed and that the 31-year-old bachelor farmer should be held for trial.

Gein is accused of the premeditated killing of Mrs. Bernice Worden, whose mutilated body was found hanging by the heels from a rafter in Gein's farm home last Saturday night. Gein also is charged with robbing her hardware store.

Gein's attorney waived preliminary hearing.

Spy Says

ects were turned over to the Russians.

"The Russians did not want anything theatrical. They wanted processes in actual operation and making money."

Asked for an example of such a project, Morris replied the convicted spy told him he obtained from another Soviet agent at the Holston Ordnance Works in Kingsport, Tenn., two samples of a high explosive known as RDX.

Gold told him, the ondsel said, that he was able to obtain two pounds of the high explosive—it has twice the power of TNT—and turned it over to the Russians in the fall of 1943.

Morris also said Greenglass repeated previous testimony that Rosenberg was able to obtain a complete proximity fuse and turned it over to the Russians. This device explodes a shell with in a pre-set distance of a target.

Clifford S. McFarren, Gettysburg R. 2 who had served a 30-day sentence for driving while under the influence of intoxicants, was placed on probation and given 60 days in which to pay the costs in the case.

Placed on Probation
Donald Myers, Gardner R. 1, charged with driving while under suspension, and who had been in jail for inability to pay a fine and costs, was placed on probation for 60 days on condition he pay the $90 he had available Wednesday and pay the remainder in the 60-day period.

William D. Reedy, Baltimore, held in Adams County jail to appear on a cheating by false pretense charge, which had been dismissed when it was testified that the person taking his check had promised to wait some time before cashing it, was released to Ohio authorities after he waived extradition to go to Ohio for a parole violation.

A jury was drawn to hear the action in trespass brought by Verna H. Arndt, administratrix of the estate of Robert E. Arndt, against Paul A. Walter and Harry A. Zentz. The case will be heard Friday.

GIRARD CASE ARGUED AGAIN IN PA. COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The state of Pennsylvania and the city of Philadelphia charged today that any effort to continue racial discrimination at Girard College, a private school, was unconstitutional.

Attorneys for the state and the city demanded that Pennsylvania's Supreme Court strike down a ruling of Philadelphia's Orphans Court which continues to deny admittance of qualified Negro male orphans to the school established in 1840 under the will of merchant financier Stephen Girard.

The racial issue with national undertones came before the justices of the state's highest tribunal for the second time.

The justices held in 1956 that Girard in his will restricted admittance to the school to "poor white orphans" and this provision could not be upset.

Action Termed Illegal
However, this stand was rejected by the U.S. Supreme Court last April which ruled that Girard College, administered by a public agency—the Board of City Trusts of Philadelphia—could not restrict admittance on racial grounds because of the federal constitution.

The Orphans Court, noting this directive from the nation's No. 1 court, in September removed the city trustee and substituted a private trustee group.

LEIST AWARDED

ness, said he was called to the kitchen of the Blue Parrot by Mrs. Aumen to help Mr. Aumen and that he arrived to find a "mouth argument" between the two men.

He sought to restrain Smith and Smith grabbed McIntyre's shirt and pushed him back against a wall, tearing the shirt.

McIntyre said the next thing he saw was Leist and Smith "going out the door of the kitchen backwards, with Leist in back of Smith and they broke through the banister on the porch and fell to the ground with Smith on top."

Aumen said after the "rumble" as it was termed by Chief of Police Jack Bartlett in his testimony, Leist "was holding his head," but did not seem to have any visible injury. He said Leist did not think he needed to see a physician.

Later a bartender at the Blue Parrot took Leist to his home. His housekeeper, Mrs. Corrine McMillon, said he seemed "dazed" when he arrived, and that when he sought to go upstairs to his bedroom, he had to "crawl up the steps."

He declined to have a physician called, but when he was unable to rise the next day a physician was called and he was found to have suffered a brain injury.

Chief Bartlett said he was told by Smith that the "argument" with Aumen started because Smith had been promised to be "let off" from his bartending duties at 6 p.m. but was kept on at work by Aumen.

Bartlett said Smith told him that he "had that worry and some other things on his mind and started taking a drink or two."

Taneytown

The annual thank offering service will be held in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

This service is sponsored by the United Lutheran Church Women of Trinity and Trinity Mission Circle. Each girl signed a Girl Scout autograph book which was presented to Ellen Waugaman who is moving to Harrisburg. Mrs. Dan Warrington, leader, was assisted by Miss Betty Lou Kuykendall.

Arendtsville Brownie Troop 2 held an investiture service during its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Scout Hut. The following girls were invested into the troop: Donna Gochenour, Mary Frances Grove, Carlotta Swisher, Yolande Swisher, Carol Ann Walter, Susan Wetzel, Carol Taylor and Bettina McBeth. The meeting opened with the flag ceremony after which members participated in the portrayal of the Brownie story. Games were played. The 18 members present were assisted by Mrs. Roy Nelson, leader, and Mrs. David Houck, committee member.

Weddings

Gladfelter—Worley

Miss Marian Grace Worley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Worley, Littlestown, R. 2, and Pfc. John W. Gladfelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Gladfelter, 111½ High St., Hanover, were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown. The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

Miss Brenda Worley, Littlestown, R. 2, attended her sister as maid of honor. Serving as best man was William L. Muntz, Hanover, a friend of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street-length dress of ivory white brocade, fashioned on princess lines with a notched bateau neckline, short jacket with self-covered buttons and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore white satin hat and shoes. Her jewelry was a matching gold brooch and earring set, and a gold bracelet which belonged to her great-grandmother. She carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid, from which fell a shower of what satin streamers knotted with tiny carnations.

The maid of honor wore a dress of ice blue rayon crystalite, styled similar to the bride's dress. She wore a brocade hat and shoes. She wore a white rosebud corsage.

A wedding reception was held at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening in the church social hall, with approximately 75 guests in attendance.

Mrs. Gladfelter, who will reside, for the present, at the home of her parents, is a 1957 graduate of the Littlestown High School. She is employed as a secretary by DeKalb Agriculture Association, Inc. Her husband attended Eichelberger Senior High School, Hanover, and is now serving as a military policeman with the Army, stationed at Fort Eustis, Va.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department belatedly disclosed today that Adlai Stevenson was sworn in yesterday morning as a foreign policy consultant and that he is on the payroll.

The rate is about $50 a day on days the Democratic leader works for the Republican administration. State Department press officer Lincoln White said the action was not announced at the time apparently because of some kind of mixup over how it should be announced. Normally swearings-in are ballyhooed in advance to get maximum attention.

About $50 A Day
When Stevenson arrived here to begin talks with Secretary of State Dulles on U.S. planning for next month's Nato summit meeting he was described by State Department officials as being non-titled and non-paid.

In a speech in Chicago last night, however, Dulles said Stevenson would be on the government payroll for a long, long time and went on to explain that a top level consultant—such as Dulles himself was under the Democratic Truman administration—draws about $50 a day.

It was this remark by Dulles which triggered the State Department disclosure that Stevenson actually had taken the oath yesterday as a consultant to President Eisenhower although he is technically on the payroll of the State Department.

$57,462 ACTION FILED IN YORK

A suit for $57,462.00 damages for the death of one of seven persons killed in a head-on collision on the Lincoln highway three miles west of York was started in York common pleas court Tuesday.

The complaint was filed by Attorney C. A. Ling on behalf of Frances I. Saur, Hanover, administratrix of the estate of her husband, Norman, 59, driver of one of the cars.

Named as defendant is C. D. Krout, administrator of the estate of Dean E. Diehl, 23, East Berlin R. 3, who was driving the other car and who also met death.

The suit charges Diehl operated his car in a negligent manner. Saur was employed by Tioga Textile Associates, Inc., York.

In another suit stemming from a fatal accident, damages amounting to $10,570 are asked by Raymond Routson, New Oxford R. 1, in behalf of Cora Routson, who died January 29, of injuries suffered in an accident in McSherrystown last December 25.

Defendant in that suit is David Paugh, Hanover. A separate suit against Paugh asks $2,603 damages for Routson, driver of the one car, who was injured.

Interment was in Mountainview Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Charles Bushman, George Edgar and L. Roy Ashbaugh and Charles and Edward Kerrigan.

1st Russ Rocket To Die About Dec. 11

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The rocket that launched Russia's Sputnik I will be making its evening swan song over the United States next week, the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said today.

The rocket and possibly Sputnik I should be visible over most of the country on successive passes in evening twilight.

The following week the rocket should be visible for a few days in the morning before sunrise. The Smithsonian predicts the rocket will make its flaming death plunge within three days, either way, of Dec. 11.

250 Miles In Air

Dr. Charles Whitney, Smithsonian astrophysicist, said the rocket-satellite would be about 250 miles high in its passage over the United States.

Sputnik II, the dog-carrying satellite, is still out of sight for viewers except in the far north and far south. It should be visible in the twilight in the United States early in December.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — David C. Whitmarsh, head of the State College Moonwatch team, said today the rocket of the first Russian Sputnik would appear over the central Pennsylvania area Nov. 25 shortly before 7 p.m. on a pass between Chicago and Atlanta.

$2,000 GRANT GIVEN COLLEGE

Saint Joseph College's education department, Emmitsburg, recently received a $2,000 grant from the Raskob Foundation for Catholic Activities, Inc., to be used for demonstration lessons on the secondary school level given to teachers in-service by expert critic teachers.

Demonstration lessons will be carried out in accordance with a threefold aim: 1. to improve the preparation of present junior and senior high school teachers in order to meet the problem caused by the increase in high school enrollments; 2. to give teachers the opportunity of observing experienced teachers in a functional situation in the five major fields of mathematics, English, history, science, and foreign languages; and 3. to supply an accumulation of model lesson plans for others in the field to use.

This project, proposed by Sister Justa, chairman of the department of education, and other members, will be open to Sisters of Charity from Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Washington, D. C., and to other religious communities in the same area. Tentative plans are being made to begin demonstration lessons next September, probably to be held on Saturdays in Baltimore.

STATE DRIVERS TO BE TRAINED

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Leader's Traffic Safety Council today approved a plan to give traffic safety instruction to each state employee who drives a state-owned car and to offer the same instruction to all other state workers and the general public.

The program will be prepared by the executive committee of the council under the direction of Dr. Amos E. Neyhart, director of the Institute of Public Safety, Pennsylvania State University.

The program will follow the nationally-known driver training plan formulated by Penn State and devised by Dr. Neyhart. It is expected to be ready early next year.

The program will be broken down into four phases of instruction: Road test in traffic; rules and regulations; signs, signals and markings; and mental, physical and emotional characteristics of drivers.

CHOICE EXAMPLE

to call cases out of all order and the attorneys made swift arrangements so they could have everything ready to go.

"During this term we had nine criminal trials. As you may know, the court appoints attorneys where defendants have no counsel. During the nine criminal cases the court appointed attorneys in six of the cases. The attorneys appointed work without recompense, but no one could tell those cases in which the attorneys received fees and those in which they worked without fee, for they gave a splendid example of the responsibility of attorneys to their clients throughout. They all did a beautiful job in carrying out their duty to take court appointments.

Pleaded Guilty — Acquitted
"One of those cases was an outstanding example of how our American judicial system works.

"Robert A. Stevens, of Hanover, had pleaded guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter. It is the custom of our court not to accept pleas of guilty in important cases without at first asking the defendant if he has consulted with an attorney and knows of his rights. Stevens, at sidebar, told the court that he could not afford an attorney and thus had decided to plead guilty as the only thing he could do. We said that if he wished the court would appoint counsel to represent him and he could take the case to trial. He agreed and the court appointed a member of the county bar to represent him. As a result, a jury found him innocent of the charge. If it had not been for the American system of justice he probably today would be serving a jail sentence.

"It was an outstanding proof that under our American system the rights of defendants are fully protected."

BANQUET TONIGHT

FLU REACHES PEAK IN SOME AREAS OF U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Public Health Service said today there are indications the Asian influenza epidemic probably has reached its peak in some parts of the nation.

The report indicated this may include all sections except the Pacific states.

The number of deaths from influenza and pneumonia in 108 cities dropped during the week ended Nov. 16 to 782. This was 13 per cent below the number in the preceding week.

Deaths Decrease

Also the number of deaths in 114 cities from all causes last week was down three per cent from the preceding week, to a total of 12,222.

The decreases in deaths occurred in all geographic divisions of the nation except the Pacific states.

The weekly summary noted that a number of states reported that fewer cases were occurring.

"School or industrial absenteeism is reported to have decreased to normal expected levels in some states," the report said. "Others report no new community outbreaks."

780,000 New Cases

The summary said there were 780,000 new cases reported or estimated by 35 states for the week ended Nov. 16, compared with 1,100,000 by 35 states in the week ended Nov. 9. This pushed to at least 9,130,000 the estimated total of Asian flu cases since early June, based on incomplete reports.

Another report on the number of new cases of acute respiratory diseases in the week ended Oct. 26 indicated a peak might have been reached about Oct. 19 but the PHS cautioned this was not necessarily true.

The report showed a drop of 18 per cent in the number of new cases of respiratory diseases involving at least one day in bed. There were 10,048,000 estimated in the week ended Oct. 26, compared with 12,238,000 in the preceding week.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

R. E. Zinn To Head Nimrod: Officers to serve the Adams County Fish and Game association during 1939 were nominated at the regular meeting of the organization Friday evening in a room in the rear of Mrs. Smith's restaurant. Vice President John Fidler, of Biglerville, presided.

All of the nominees were unopposed. They are: President, Roy E. Zinn, Hanover street; first vice president, H. F. Harbaugh, Fairfield; second vice president, John George T. Raffensperger, South Stratton St., and treasurer, Emory H. Dougherty, Carlisle St.

Miss Kendlehart, Ill 3 Weeks, Dies At 95: Saw Lincoln: Miss Mary Cecilia Kendlehart, 95, the second oldest resident of Gettysburg, died at her home, 45 West Middle street, Friday evening from infirmities of age.

She was a daughter of the late David and Eliza (Bowen) Kendlehart, and was born and always resided in Gettysburg. The deceased had distinct recollections of the battle of Gettysburg and at that time lived in the Kendlehart property, now known as the Taughinbaugh property, on Baltimore street. The property was built by the Kendlehart family during 1859 and 1860 with materials taken from the old court house.

Miss Kendlehart recalled having seen President Lincoln and often told of the large room in the house being filled with wounded soldiers during the battle. There were five children in the Kendlehart family at that time.

East Berlin Pastor Weds: Miss Anna Mae Nace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Nace, Jefferson, York county, became the bride of the Rev. Richard E. Shaffer, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed church, East Berlin, Saturday morning in Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, Jefferson.

Marriage In '36 Of Miss Plank To College Grad Announced: Mrs. Milton C. Plank, Baltimore street, entertained a few friends Friday night at a bridge supper at which time Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Plank announced the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Louise Plank, to Edward Earl Barrett on August 1, 1936, at Stafford, Virginia.

13 County Banks Will Send Out $130,000 In Xmas Club Checks Dec. 1: More than 3,000 Adams countyans will receive a total of more than $130,000 through the mails during the first 10 days of the month of December when 13 county banking institutions mail checks to the members of the Christmas saving clubs conducted by the banks during the last 12 months.

Boy Scouts Are Given Higher Ranks, Badges: A Boy Scout court of honor for the Gettysburg district was held Wednesday evening at which advancements and merit badges were given. Lloyd C. Kee-fauver, vice president of the court, presided.

The following merit badges were awarded: Samuel Daley, Troop 90, civics; Jerry Troxell, troop 80, wood carving; James Hafer, troop 80, civics; Jack Glenn, troop 76, swimming and life saving; Donald Oyler, troop 80, wood carving. Promotions announced included: Harry Oyler, Troop 75, star scout; James Geiselman, Troop 79, and Jack Glenn, Troop 76, first class; William Weikert, Benton Fry, Chester Hamm, Fred Crouse, Earl Crouse, Philip Ridinger, Ronald Enoch and Jay McLaughlin, all of Troop 79, second class; James Moore, William Dinsmore, William Harness and Paul Thomas, all of Troop 79, tenderfoot.

Peter Pan Cast To Give Comedy: The Peter Pan Players of the Biglerville High school will present the three-act comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen," Thursday and Friday evenings.

Each act of the play is laid in a different setting. All sets were designed by Bruce Nary and built by the students of the Vocational department under the supervision Prof. Cecil Snyder, John Bringman,

Today's Talk

FACE IT

All of us have personal problems that we often try to dodge. But if we do they take on significance and we learn it is far better to face them, solving them the best we know, and then pass on. They clutter up our life if we leave them, thinking that they will settle themselves. They rarely do.

Decisions are difficult to make at times, but we get nowhere if we neglect them. One by one we can wipe them from our mind. Of course it often takes courage, but every time we come out stronger and enriched in character. We often hear the expression that a certain person is one of character.

If difficulty or trouble comes to you face it. Your decision to do so if half the battle already won! An opportunity neglected is an opportunity lost. Face your problems. Walk right up to them. Finish with them and go forward.

Many of our mistakes, misjudgments, and accusations are made unconsciously. Admit them and profit by them. The longer we live the more we realize our frailty and our aptness to error. But it is possible to build from our mistakes and blunders, and then watch them float down stream and out of sight!

It all boils down to this: If you have a problem to solve, or if some sort of trouble has come to you, face it and live it out as thousands of others do every day. We keep living out the experience of the race for we are one of it. When in trouble, or when an emergency arises, if we face it with courage and confidence we have nothing to fear.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Substitutes." Protected, 1957, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

AROUND THE CORNER
You've passed around the corner, Pal.

Your bad luck's left behind;
The road ahead, where you may tread,
With joy is fairly lined.
Out of the darkness of despair
You've journeyed into light;
A heart that's true awaits for you
And peace is yours tonight.

You've passed around the corner, Pal.

Once more your star is high;
So leave behind the troubled mind,
Good fortune now is nigh.
The grim, dark past we'll bury deep.
Before you lies the way
Where roses bend to greet you, friend,
And peace is your today.

You've passed around the corner, Pal.

The smoother road is thine;
The struggle's done, the battle's won,
Come, place your hand in mine.
The storms that tossed your bark are o'er,
The sea of life's at play;
The God of love still reigns above,
And peace is yours for aye.

You've passed around the corner, Pal.

But others struggle still;
A world of cares and grief are theirs
And rough and steep the hill
They clamber up, so give a hand
And help them on today,
And God will smile on you the while
Who knows the bitter way.

Blind 18 Years, Woman Sees Light By Electronic Device

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—"Oh, I can see the light."

It was in these words that a woman blind for 18 years described her reaction to a new electronic device, her surgeons said. The woman, Betty Corstorphine, 35, underwent a series of tests in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, last month using a photo-electric cell connected to wires in her brain.

Opens Electronic Vision
"I saw flashes, at one time a bright flash like an electric light bulb, and at another time a grayness as though a light had just gone out," she said.

Dr. John C. Button said the test showed that brain cells did not atrophy like unused muscle cells but could be stimulated.

Saying that the test "opens the door to the possibilities of electronic vision," he predicted that with adequate funds medical science could refine the apparatus so that within five years almost all blind people could "see" by means of electrical stimulus of the vision centers.

Button, a 46-year-old neurologist who lives in nearby Maplewood, described the device that may eventually be developed as "something like a radarscope or television set."

Miss Corstorphine, who volunteered for the tests begun last Oct. 28, has been blind since 1939 because of the pressure of an inoperable, benign tumor on her optic nerve.

PINBALL CASE TO BE ARGUED BEFORE COURT

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Three judges will hear final arguments Nov. 25 in the controversial Fayette County pinball case.

A decision in the case has been delayed by illness to two jurists, transcription of lengthy testimony and filing of briefs.

The Commonwealth contends that 41 pinball machines seized by police in raids last June 20 are gambling devices and wants court permission to destroy them.

Began In July

At a hearing that began last July 17, the defense, headed by Atty. Louis P. Glasco of Pittsburgh, contended the machines required skill and were for amusement only.

State authorities have indicated that if the court rules in their favor they will move quickly to seize other pinball machines throughout the state.

State police seized the machines in raids last June at business places in Uniontown, Connellsville and Brownsville. A state policeman testified he had seen a number of winning players receive cash payoffs.

Both sides called a number of witnesses at the hearing. It lasted over a week and some 700 pages of testimony were taken.

Shortly afterward President Judge W. Russell Carr was taken ill and spent several weeks in a hospital.

Later his colleague, Judge S. John Morrow, was hospitalized and died several weeks ago.

Meantime, Deputy Atty. General Frank Lawley had asked the court that no decision be handed down until he filed his brief. The brief was filed earlier this week.

The final arguments will be heard by Judge Eustace H. Bane, Judge Carr and Judge Edward Dumbauld, who only last week was appointed by Gov. Leader to fill the unexpired term of Judge Morrow.

Schoolboy Football Teams Face Tough Tests This Week

HARRISBURG (P)—The battle of the ratings goes down to the wire this weekend with the championship hopes of top scholastic football teams riding on the sliderule.

Here's the situation by regions: East—After holding the lead in the ratings for most of the season, Scranton Central got edged into second in the Northern Division, Eastern Conference, by Old Forge.

It's up to the system now which of the two will get the nod. This weekend Old Forge should have little difficulty with Larksville—could even lose ground with a win. Scranton Central is off until its Turkey Day game with Scranton Tech.

In the Southern Division, Cass Twp. is at the top, but likely to go down, since it has no more games. The No. 2 team, Tamaqua, meets weak Nesquehoning and probably can't improve its position.

Shamokin To Move Up
Meanwhile, third-ranked Shamokin probably will move up in the Southern Division ratings on the basis of its 14-0 Wednesday win over Pottsville. The title of the division may ride on Shamokin's clash with Mount Carmel Thanksgiving Day.

Downington holds the edge in the Ches-Mont loop with only its Thanksgiving clash with Pottstown remaining.

Central—Lancaster must beat York this weekend to remain undefeated in the Central Penn League and keep its position to challenge Williamsport for the crown Thanksgiving Day.

The Williamsport club will rest this weekend preparatory to its Thanksgiving game.

Lancaster Is Favored
Lancaster is favored in the game, but York is rugged, having lost only to Williamsport and Harrisburg's Penn in an upset.

In the South Penn League at present Hanover has a clear edge. On Thanksgiving Hanover must beat strong Carlisle to clinch the crown. Carlisle must defeat Mechanicsburg this weekend to keep its hopes alive.

West—Lewistown received an indirect boost in the ratings to virtually assure the Panthers the Western Conference championship. Tyrone defeated Clearfield Tuesday night. Under the complicated rating systems another win for Tyrone means more rating points for Lewistown, since the Panthers defeated Tyrone earlier in the campaign. Lewistown has no more games.

Seek Double A Crown
Meanwhile, in the WPIAL two of the four remaining unbeaten clubs face makeup opposition this weekend that could jockey the ratings. The two top-rated teams will play for the double A crown.

New Kensington plays Turtle Creek and Uniontown meets Redstone.

At present Clairton and Wilkinsburg are rated one-two in the circuit. A New Kensington win might displace Wilkinsburg. Uniontown should have no difficulty with Redstone, but it appears it cannot move up high enough in the ratings to take one of the coveted top two spots.

TIGERS WOULD LIKE TO MAKE MORE TRADES

DETROIT (P)—"They're all nice fellows and I hate to see them go. But we never did much while they were here. We're going to go places—and you can't go any place standing still."

Jack Tighe made that comment, discussing the 13-player deal that was announced yesterday by the Detroit Tigers and the Kansas City Athletics.

General Manager John J. McHale says he is ready to make more trades. The Tigers would like to get back Vic Weritz, the heavy-hitting first baseman whom they traded to the old St. Louis Browns in 1952.

"Did Real Well"
In the latest trade, the Tigers lost Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Duke Maas, Jim Small and John Tisler to two minor league players to be named later. They received Billy Martin, Gus Zernial, Maury McDermott, Lou Skizas, Tom Morgan and Tim Thompson.

People around Detroit feel the Tigers got the better of the deal. Tighe said, "We did real well."

The five Tigers named in the deal average 24½ years in age. The six players coming to Detroit have an average age of 29½. The Tigers elected not to hesitate, hope and wait two or three years for players who might become front-line major leaguers.

McHale worked hard on the trade. It was in the talk stage for more than two months. He spent three days in Chicago last week with Arnold Johnson, A's president, and their general manager, Parke Carroll. McHale was in close contact with Tighe.

Martin, when informed of his trade, demanded a cash settlement from the Athletics and indicated he might hold out on the deal.

He said "I told Kansas City before this trade that I wanted a slice of my sale price if they traded me. Well I want it now or maybe I just won't go. . . . I want a cash settlement and if I don't get it I'm just stubborn enough that I might sit tight. If I refuse to go maybe the deal will blow up."

Officials of both clubs, however, expressed little concern over Martin's demand.

In Kansas City, George Selkirk, Kansas City's director of personnel, said he had talked with Martin a half an hour after the trade.

"I think he's quieted down now," Selkirk said. "He probably had made plans to stay here, but he knows better than to do that in baseball."

Other members of the American Davis Cup team moved forward into the second round—two of them, Vic Seixas, Philadelphia, and Herb Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif., on byes.

The veteran 44-year-old Gardnar Mulloy of Denver making his first start in Australia since his arrival, played steady tennis in beating Wayne Reid, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Barry Mackay, Dayton, Ohio, who is playing best of the Americans, ousted Peter Newman, Australia, 6-1, 7-5, 6-1.

Ron Holmberg, 18-year-old Brooklyn boy, won over Fred Stolle, another Aussie, 6-2, 6-4, 6-1.

Giants Expect To Double Their Crowds
SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The transplanted Giants expect to double their attendance in their new California baseball quarters in 1958.

Ticket manager Pete Hoffman predicted today the attendance at the former Seals Stadium—23,000 capacity—would hit 1,250,000 by the time the ex-New Yorkers finish their first season here. This year's final season at the Polo Grounds—twice as large—drew 653,000, Hoffman said.

Lock Haven Back Wins Scoring Title

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Lock Haven's star back George Dintiman has just about put the Pennsylvania college football scoring championship on ice.

Dintiman scored two touchdowns last Saturday in a game against Mansfield to complete his season with 12 touchdowns and 72 points, an Associated Press survey disclosed today.

His closest pursuers also have finished their seasons. They are Bob Mosteller, West Chester State Teachers with 67; Geneva's Willie Taylor with 66; and Muhlenberg's Herb Owens, with 60.

Next comes Frank Capitani of Gettysburg, who has 57 points and one more game to play—and thus an outside chance of overtaking Dintiman. Juniata's Bill Berrier, with 50 points, also has one more game on the schedule.

NOTRE DAME'S KUCHTA WEEK'S TOP LINEMAN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (P)—A bench warmer, constantly plagued by recurring injuries, was the role that senior center Frank Kuchta emerged from to spearhead a stunning 7-0 Notre Dame upset of Oklahoma and win Associated Press Lineman of the Week honors.

"Sure, it was the best game I've ever played at Notre Dame," said the 6-3, 205-pound Kuchta after he was told of his selection.

"But there were six other guys in that forward wall. And as far as I'm concerned they could have picked all seven Notre Dame starting linemen for the honor."

For Terrific Plan
For his terrific offensive and defensive play that shattered Oklahoma's 47-game winning skein, Kuchta gained the nod from the weekly AP poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

A pair of hard-hitting Notre Dame guards, James Schaaf and Al Ecuver, also drew praise for their work against the Sooners.

Kuchta, whose home is in Cleveland, said he was "tremendously excited" over his selection.

"Why, I haven't played a whole game or a major part of it for some time. I understand I played about 45 minutes in my first starting assignment all year last Saturday," he asserted.

NAVY'S POWER GRID TEAM IS VERY "SMART"

By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Editor
The U. S. Naval Academy football team is one of the strongest in the East. It could rank with the national leaders, depending on how the Middies make out in their traditional game with Army November 30.

Navy also is one of the most intelligent teams, for 34 of its squadmen are B average students at Annapolis.

Three of the Middies are "star men" on the superintendent's list with averages better than 3.4 which is comparable to the dean's list in a civilian college.

Flood Is Tops
Top man academically on the Navy team for the 1956-57 school year is Pat Flood, the quarterback from Tucson, Ariz., who understudies Tom Forrestal of Cleveland.

Pat, who expects to get his B. S. degree in engineering next June, made A's in all subjects except one (electrical engineering) and he had a B in that one. Pat, whose 3.63 is tops for the football team, scored a perfect 4 in hygiene and a 3.8 in three subjects (math, marine engineering and seamanship and navigation).

Flood maintains his high standard in the classroom despite football practice five afternoons a week and constant conditioning in the swimming pool. He's also on the varsity swimming team.

The 174-pound 6-foot Thomas Patrick Flood gives the Middies a solid 1-2 punch at the all-important quarterback spot. As a junior last season he completed 11 of 18 passes for 147 yards and two touchdowns.

Ex-Irish Player
A member of the Notre Dame freshman team before transferring to Annapolis, Flood is on the team again this fall. In the 46-6 victory over Boston College, Flood completed two of four passes for 32 yards. He starred against Georgia and kicked two extra points.

Navy's other "star men" are left halfback Ned Oldham of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, team captain who scored 53 points last season, and tackle John Williams of Marion, Kan. Oldham completed his third year with a 3.42 average and Williams his second with 3.40, the figure that puts a midshipman on the superintendent's list.

It no doubt is the smartest Navy team since Eddie Ederlat took over as coach in 1950. It could be the best, too.

BLOCKED PUNT GOT MICHIGAN BOWL IN 1950

By EDWARD S. KITCH
CHICAGO (P)—"Twas no day fit for man, beast or football seven years ago when Michigan defeated Ohio State 9 to 3 in a blinding blizzard."

Michigan thus took an unexpected trip to the Rose Bowl as Western Conference champions by blocking Vic Janowicz's punts.

That Saturday, Nov. 25, 1950, was a day of ups and downs. The Wolverines fell heir to the honor of roses when Northwestern downed Illinois 14 to 7.

10 Degrees, Snow
In 10 degree temperatures and 5 inches of snow, Chuck Ortmann led the Michigan attack against the Buckeyes before 50,503 brave spectators.

Some 30,000 of the 82,300 ticket holders stayed away. Most of the spectators huddled under the stands.

At Columbus, Ohio, the game started 21 minutes late as workmen, augmented by scores of volunteers, required two hours to remove the covering from the gridiron. Throughout the game, sweepers would clear goal lines and side lines. Twice brooms were needed to brush down the turf to reveal line markers.

Veto Postponement
Coaches Bennie Oosterbaan of Michigan and Wes Fesler of Ohio State huddled with officials to consider a postponement. Referee Russell Rupp, Umpire DeWitt Gibson, Field Judge David Noble and Head Linesman Cleo Diehl decided the game should be played.

Michigan won the Western Conference title for its fourth straight year, yet didn't complete a single pass, averaged less than a yard per carry running, made no first downs and picked up only 27 yards from scrimmage.

Ohio State made three first downs and completed three inconsequential passes in 18 attempts for 25 yards but had two interceptions. There were 14 fumbles, evenly divided. There were 45 punts, because conditions made futile any other play.

With the ball on Michigan's 21-yard line, Vic Janowicz, later to try his hand as a big league catcher with Pittsburgh, blocked a field goal and the Buckeyes led 3-0 after four minutes.

An out-of-bounds punt by Chuck Ortmann on Ohio State's 3 led to a score for the Wolverines. Janowicz punted on first down but the ball was blocked by Captain Al Wahl of Michigan. Al Jackson, Michigan guard, recovered for a safety and two points. Ohio State 3, Michigan 2.

Fatal Punt Choice
Forty-seven seconds remained until the half. Michigan took time out. When play resumed, the Buckeyes decided to punt although they could have delayed the play. Janowicz went back to punt and Michigan set up a nine man line.

Tony Mosen broke through, blocked Janowicz's punt, and gathered the ball on his second grab in the northwest corner of the end zone for a touchdown.

Harry Allis place kicked the point, with Chuck Ortmann holding, and Michigan led 9 to 3 as the half ended.

In the second half neither team had much chance.

SCRIBES WILL MEET
A meeting of the South Penn Sports Writers and Sportscasters Association will be held Sunday, December 1, at 2:30 p.m. at radio station WCHA, Chambersburg, at which time the all conference football team will be selected.

When Bill Hartack won his record 41st stakes victory aboard Nadir in the Garden State Stakes it ran his winners' stakes earnings for 1957 to $1,521,745.75.

Michigan State halfback Walt Kowalczyk won 13 letters in high school. Four were for football, four for baseball, three for basketball and two for track.

Discusses Swap

Billy Martin, a key figure in the Kansas City-Detroit 13-player trade, talks to Detroit from his Kansas City hotel room after learning of the swap. He said he would demand a cash settlement from the A's as part of the deal in which he is being sent to Detroit.

TRAINER SAYS CORBIN TO BE FINE JOCKEY

By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Editor
CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (P)—"The first time I put Bill Hartack on a horse I knew he'd make a rider," Norman (Junie) Corbin was saying one midnight as he drove his car five blocks from outside the Charles Town track to the only coffee shop open.

It was seven years ago that Hartack got his first chance as an exercise boy for Trainer Corbin. Today he is the nation's leading jockey for the third straight year, a feat never before attained in the history of American racing.

"This kid I have now strikes me the same way," Corbin continued. He was talking about 79-pound Don Ashenbach, a 16-year-old exercise boy. "He's been working for me at the West Virginia tracks."

"I first saw him at Charles Town walking horses. He's a worker, a real good-looking kid with fine features. He never loads and is a real gentleman. I may have him stay at my house like I did with Hartack."

Will Become Apprentice
"He's been exercising for me since October 1. One of these days we'll get him an apprentice license and I'll put him in a race."

"Both Hartack and Ashenbach have the same kind of hands. They have the feel of a horse's mouth."

Corbin, for whom Hartack worked as an exercise boy for 22 months because that's all the coal miner's son cared to do, has been around horses most of his life. His dad bought and sold horses and his uncle, Harry Corbin, trained trotters and pacers for 29 years at Hanover, Pa.

Has Won 25
Corbin, who has nine horses in training—seven for A. C. Paul of Washington and two of his own—has won 25 races here and at Waterford Park, Chester, W. Va., this year.

This may be the half-mile or less roof circuit for some but for Corbin and his wife and three children it's a living. His biggest haul in racing came when he sold Hartack's contract to Mrs. Ada L. Rice of Chicago for $15,000. Corbin used the money to buy a new home three miles out of town.

Corbin is one of the most popular horsemen in this Shenandoah Valley town for while it was put on the sports map by Hartack, people here know it was Corbin who gave Hartack his chance.

BREAM WITHOUT LETTERMAN ON L-TOWN SQUAD

A rebuilding program faces Jack Bream, former Gettysburg High and Gettysburg College athlete, in his first year as head coach of the Littlestown High School basketball squad.

Graduation swept clean the entire starting group from last year and Coach Bream is without a single letterman.

Two seniors, Al Smith 5-11, and Larry White 6-1, played varsity ball last year but did not have sufficient action for letters.

Ten boys who played junior varsity ball last year and won the county league title in that division round out the varsity squad. They include Fred Hahn 5-11, Mike Collins 5-11, Karl Bankert 5-10, Jim Patterson 6-0, Jesse Sheely 5-8, Fred Straley 5-11, Ronald Cross 5-11, Bob Nester 5-11, Sam Frymyer 5-10, and Jack Ketterman 5-9. All are Juniors.

Underclassmen on JV's
All ninth and 10th graders will play junior varsity this year and will be coached by Maurice Bream. The Thunderbolts will open their 15-game schedule at Red Lion on Tuesday, December 3. Five open dates appear of the schedule and several may be filled.

The complete schedule follows: December 3, Red Lion, away; 6, Kennard-Dale, home; 10, Delone, away; 13, open; 17, open; 19, Delone, home; 30, Kennard-Dale, away.

January 3, New Oxford, away; 7, open; 10, Bermudian Joint, away; 14, Biglerville, home; 17, Big Spring, away; 21, Fairfield, home; 24, open; 28, open; 31, New Oxford, home.

February 7, Bermudian Joint, home; 11, Biglerville, away; 14, Big Spring, home; 18, Fairfield, away; 27 and March 1, county league playoffs.

BUBBLERS' LAST GAME SATURDAY

Coach "Bud" Ecker, formerly of Littlestown and a graduate of Gettysburg College, will complete his ninth season as coach of the Bolling Springs High School football teams when the Bubblers host Susquehanna Twp. Saturday evening.

His teams have always had winning records, his overall record being 71 wins, 21 losses and two ties. During the stretch his teams won four conference titles and were runnersup three other years.

The school has one of the smallest enrollments in the area. Due to the small number of students junior high ball is an impossibility and only varsity and junior varsity ball is played.

Ten Bubblers will close out their careers Saturday including Don Steinhour and Bob Grove, ends; Charles Jacoby, and Alden Karper, tackles; Don Eppley, guard; Don Bream, center; Gary Fishel, Clarence Corman, Mark Clippinger and Raymond Kuhn. Fishel, 190, is the conference's top scorer and is being sought by several colleges.

Susquehanna has already clinched the Class A title of the conference and will be a severe test for the Bubblers who are 5-4.

A racing official promised to have the suspension lifted. But it stuck, and Corbin was down at his heels. It was then that he sold Hartack's contract and paved the way for racing's current success story.

Archers Will Seek To Lease 17 Acres

The Gettysburg Archers voted to lease approximately 17 acres of land in the Wolf Hill area for their field work at a meeting Wednesday evening at Trostle's barber shop, Chambersburg St. If the land is leased Frank Childs, a member of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Archery Commission, will be asked to plot the course to meet state regulations. 19 members attended the meeting.

Permanent officers will be elected at the April meeting the date of which will be announced later. President Edward Trostle and vice president Richard C. Cole reported for the land committee.

Fifty-seven archers have joined the local group. The charter will be closed Sunday.

HOLY CROSS AND UTAH BACKS ON TOP '57 LIST

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
The Associated Press
NEW YORK (P)—Tom Greene of Holy Cross and Lee Grosscup of Utah, statistically two of the leading ground-gainers in major college football, are among more than two dozen players under consideration for backfield positions on the 1957 All-America team.

The regional boards which have scrutinized the nation's leading teams throughout the season today listed the possibilities.

With two games still left on the schedule for many of the leading teams, the lists submitted this week may undergo radical changes.

Other Superior Performers
Greene and Grosscup, both T-formation quarterbacks, have registered most of their gains by passing. Greene has accounted for a total of 1,323 yards in eight games. Grosscup, 1,231 in nine.

Some superior all-around performers may beat them out for the All-America team.

Well-recommended backs in this category include John Crow, the Texas A&M bruiser who was listed on the All-America second team last season. Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State, Joe Francis of Oregon State and Bobby Jordan of Virginia Military Institute.

Others On List
Quarterbacks King Hill of Rice and Bill Stacy of Mississippi State are also strong possibilities.

Also listed as standouts in their areas were Virginia fullback Jim Bakhtiar, Bob Anderson of Army, Bob Stransky of Colorado, Nick Plestrosante of Notre Dame and Bobby Mulgado of Arizona State.

In the East, Navy passer Tom Forrestal and Princeton's John Sapoch, an exceptional blocking back, were pressing Greene for quarterback honors. Grosscup's Utah teammate, Merrill Douglas, also was well recommended.

More Prospects
Some others listed were Jimmy Taylor, Louisiana State; Ray Brown, Mississippi; Harvey White, Clemson; Dick Christy, North Carolina State; Wray Carlton, Duke; Bobby Schwarze, The Citadel, and Mike Sommer, George Washington.

Gerald Nesbitt, Arkansas fullback, was listed with Crow and Hill in the Southwest. Others were Ohio State's Don Clarke, Michigan's Jim Pace, Oklahoma's Clendon Thomas, Jimmy Jones of Washington, Jack Douglas of Stanford and Tom Flores of College of the Pacific.

SPORTS IN BRIEF
RACING
NEW YORK — Nile Lily ($20.00) won the first running of the $23,050 American Beauty Handicap at Jamaica.

BALTIMORE — Mile Dianne ($3.40) captured the $6,000 feature at Pimlico.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Waban Thomas, 200, Charlotte, knocked out Neil Wallace, 199, Charlotte, 6.

NEWBURGH, N.Y. — Bobby Bell, 129½, Youngstown, Ohio, outpointed Henry Gault, 128, Spartanburg, S.C., 10.

GAVILAN WINS BY DECISION

CHICAGO (P)—Kid Gavilan is showing signs of rust but his fighting instinct still has plenty of polish.

The former welterweight champion, who at 31 wants to regain the title, craftily won a unanimous decision over Boston's Walt Byars last night in a 10-rounder televised nationally from Chicago Stadium.

Byars, 25, was in a purple rage in the sixth round, complaining to Referee Frank Sikora that the Cuban Kid had struck a low blow. It looked for a minute as if Byars would tear into Gavilan in angered frenzy.

This he did at the start of the seventh, and the Kid cooled him off with a change of tactics. He started left-jabbing him and the former Marine featherweight champion of the Korean campaign could not score effectively.

Gavilan fought his stubby opponent wisely with a pressing body attack most of the time, and although many of his blows were blocked inside, enough were jammed through to pile up points.

Gavilan outweighed his foe 151 to 146 pounds.

BERMUDIAN JR. HIGH GRIDDERS BOW IN FINAL

Bermudian Joint Junior High suffered its only defeat after four straight victories when it dropped a 19-13 decision to Bolling Springs Wednesday evening on the latter's field.

Pete Kemper's outfit suffered from fumbleitis which gave the Bubblers a pair of scores in the first period. The first score came on a reverse from the 30. On the first play following the next kickoff Bolling Springs recovered at midfield, and then moved to the 10-yard line. Bermudian held and the Bubblers, on a fourth down 22-to-go situation, were awarded a pass interference penalty which placed the ball on the 1 from where a line plunge sent the score to 12-0.

Craig Hoke tallied from the 1 for Bermudian's first touchdown in the second period and Charley Graybill slanted off tackle to add the extra point.

Schrade Intercepts
In the third period Barry Schrade streaked 40 yards on a pass interception to put Bermudian in front 13-7.

Another fumble, recovered by the Bubblers on their own 40, was followed by a 60-yard run on the first play to give Bolling Springs its winning tally in the final period. Score by periods: Bolling Springs 12 0 0 7 — 19 Bermudian Jr. 0 7 6 0 — 13

SAYS LION SOPH TOPS AL JACKS ON GRID SQUAD

PITTSBURGH (P)—Coach Johnny Michelosen of Pitt says Penn State's football team will be tougher to defeat Saturday if sophomore Richie Lucas starts at quarterback in place of the injured Al Jacks.

"Despite his inexperience, Lucas appears to be a better passer and more daring than Jacks," Michelosen said last night. "And our scouts tell us that Lucas also is the better runner."

It was indicated yesterday at University Park that Lucas will start when Pitt and Penn State meet in Pitt Stadium for the 57th time. Jacks, recovering from a shoulder separation, is expected to see spot service.

Expects Aerial Show
While making no predictions on the outcome, Michelosen looks for an aerial show. He said Lucas and Les Walters

WOMEN HOLD ANNUAL DINNER ON WEDNESDAY

The 23rd annual banquet of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity was held on Wednesday evening in the social hall of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, with nearly a hundred club members and guests in attendance. A full course roast turkey dinner was served by the women of the church.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Amos D. Meyers and group singing of "Now We Thank Thee All Our God." Group singing was also enjoyed between the courses and at the conclusion of the meal, accompanied on the piano by Miss A. Marie Budde. Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, club president, was toastmistress, and welcomed the members and guests. Miss Budde introduced Miss Florence Duckworth, a music student of hers, who is a junior at Gettysburg College. Miss Duckworth sang "A Birthday," "Thanks Be to God" and "The Italian Street Song," with Miss Budde as accompanist.

Mrs. Amos Meyers, speaker for the occasion, was introduced by Mrs. Ritter. Mrs. Meyers, a native of Hawaii, described the eight islands of the group and what each one is most famous for. She stated that life in Hawaii is as modern as here with the educational system using the very same curriculum. The speaker also said that "there are an understanding and tolerance and human respect in the islands, where there are so many different races and creeds, but there are no racial problems." A variety of clothing was displayed, with the background of the various designs explained by Mrs. Meyers, some with Chinese, Japanese, Indian and other backgrounds; and some chinaware was also displayed. In conclusion, Mrs. Meyers interpreted the story of the hula, "Lovely Hula Hands," with hand motions, and read the "Hymn of the Hawaiian Islands." Rev. Meyers showed colored pictures taken during a trip this past summer by him and his wife, their two children and a guest, showing famous places, the scenery, the dances, etc., on the islands.

Next Meeting Dec. 18
The members of the banquet committee were presented by Mrs. Ritter as follows: Mrs. Donald C. Sheely, chairman, Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Mrs. J. Ray Reinhold, Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Miss Marie Budde, Mrs. John Gentzler and Mrs. A. G. Ealy.

Mrs. Ritter announced that there was on display a variety of Christmas and every-day cards and note-paper being sold by local organizations, with the proceeds to go to UNICEF for the needy children of the world. Mrs. Robert H. Miller, club treasurer, took charge of the sale of these cards.

Announcement was made that the next meeting on Wednesday, December 18, will be the annual Christmas party and this year Guest Night will be observed. Members were asked to invite older women of the community who might enjoy such an affair to be their guests. Fifty-cent gifts will be exchanged and those members taking guests will also take an extra gift. Members will also take their contribution for the Christmas baskets to be packed by the welfare committee for the less fortunate families of the community. The program committee for the meeting includes Mrs. Atlee R. Rebert, chairman, Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse, Mrs. Nevaeh A. Crouse, Mrs. C. Wayne Purdue, Mrs. Monroe J. Stavely and Mrs. Robert J. Stonelifer. The hostess committee is composed of Miss Malva Dutta, chairman, Mrs. George C. DeHoff, Mrs. Emory Gitt, Mrs. Maurice P. Rider, Mrs. James Slick, Mrs. Vernon Snyder and Mrs. Willis Snyder.

Bible Class Meets
Mrs. Elouise Stoudt, Baltimore, was guest speaker and told about her recent trip to Russia, at the November meeting of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, held on Tuesday evening at the church. Seventeen members and four visitors were in attendance. Mrs. Stoudt spent a week in Russia, on a side trip from a three-month visit in Europe, touring in Moscow and other cities in that country. She spoke of attending church services in Russia, and noted especially the friendliness of the people. Mrs. Stoudt supplemented her talk with pictures.

The class meeting opened with a hymn by the group; Scripture reading and prayer, Mrs. Paul H. Scheel.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western Big Three tangledfooted their way into an explosion in the Middle East in 1956. They're in the flypaper again. This time it's next door in Tunisia.

In 1950 both Israelis and Arabs in the flaming Middle East wanted arms. The United States, Britain and France — wanting to stay friendly with both sides and keep Russia away — agreed to supply arms to both sides.

They'd do this, the Big Three said, but only if a receiving nation promised not to use the arms against a neighbor. And they warned they'd jump in and stop any attack by one Middle East nation on another.

Ended In Disaster
The agreement wound up in disaster. This country, while supplying arms to other Arabs, gave none to Egypt. Egypt got them from Russia. This opened the door wide to Russian influence.

Meanwhile, this country let Britain, France and Canada do the supplying for Israel. With Russia playing his big brother, Egyptian President Nasser got obnoxious. In the fall of 1956 Israel attacked Egypt.

So did Britain and France, thus making a farce of the 1950 agreement.

Scene Shifts
Threats by Russia and demands by this country forced Israel, Britain and France to withdraw.

The scene shifts now west along the Mediterranean to Tunisia, which after a 25-year struggle to get free of France, became independent last year. Instead of turning to Russia, Tunisia is pro-West.

Although independent, it remains part of the French Union. It wants and needs French help and business. But right next door in Algeria the nationalist rebels have been fighting several years to shake off French control.

France pumped troops into Algeria. To escape them and return to fight again, Algerians have slipped over the frontier into Tunisia. And so did the French in pursuit of them.

None Can Predict
No one can predict what turn this will take for Tunisia, whose armed forces are outnumbered by Algerians and French. Tunisia asked France for arms. France laid down conditions Tunisia refused to accept.

Tunisia, mindful of what Egypt did, let it be known it would turn to the Communists of Europe for arms if France refused them. Egyptian President Nasser, seeing a chance to give the West more trouble, offered Tunisia arms which, of course, had to come from Russia since he has none of his own.

This got action from the United States and Britain, which were also mindful of what happened in Egypt. They promised help to Tunisia and sent in arms. This outraged the French.

SAYS TV TELLS
SOUTH KINGSTON, R.I. (AP)—Prof. Mollie S. Smart, assistant professor of child development and family relations at the state university, told a Parent-Teacher Assn. Meeting that the consistent difference between the normal weight children and the fat ones is that the latter spend more time watching TV.

vert; Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Maurice C. Wareheim, secretary, gave her report, and all call followed. A note of thanks was read from Mrs. Claude Witrode. It was decided to purchase a Christmas gift for a girl of the Adams County Welfare Association. Mrs. Cleason Plunkert and Mrs. Edgar Pfeffer were appointed to make the purchase. The class will pack a Christmas basket for a needy family of the congregation.

Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas party to take place on Thursday, December 26, at the home of the class teacher, Luther W. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive. Gifts will be exchanged, sunshine sisters for 1957 revealed, and new sisters for 1958 chosen. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Irvin R. Kindig, Mrs. Minnie S. Miller and Mrs. Paul H. Scheel.

The guest package, contributed by Mrs. Wareheim, was won by Mrs. George Basehor. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Edna Portney, Mrs. George Basehor and Mrs. David S. Kammerer Sr.

In his first two seasons as coach of the Hardin Simmons eleven, Sammy Baugh's teams have won nine and lost 11.

Question Spies In Prison On Red Ties

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Two convicted atomic spies will be questioned privately in prison today by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Subcommittee counsel Robert Morris said he and Sen. Butler (R-Md.) will take testimony from David Greenglass of New York and Harry Gold of Philadelphia, who are serving terms in the federal penitentiary here.

Morris said the subcommittee wants to find out from Greenglass and Gold whether Julius Greenberg, executed in 1953 as an atomic spy, ever told them he gave information to Russia on space platform forms.

After the questioning, Morris and Butler will go to Philadelphia to conduct a public hearing of the subcommittee. Seven witnesses are scheduled to testify in communion in the Philadelphia area.

In 19 seasons as football coach at Alfred University, Coach Alex Yunevich's teams have won 95 games, lost 37 and tied 6. Alex formerly played for Purdue.

GATESVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Two youths made an untimely escape from the state reform school here.

Supt. Herman Sapier was holding a barbecue for 34 law officers at the time. They pitched in and quickly rounded up the escapees.

Littlestown MANY ATTEND OPEN HOUSE AT GRADE SCHOOL

Several hundred parents and friends attended the annual open house at the Rolling Acres Elementary School on Tuesday evening, held in connection with the November Parent-Teacher Association. The visitors were welcomed in the individual classrooms and were invited to view the displays of work done by the pupils, arranged for the occasion.

Prior to the brief business session, in charge of the president, Charles E. Ritter, the invocation was given by the Rev. Rodney T. Yates, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church. Reports were heard from Mrs. J. Leslie Yohn, secretary, and Ray T. Harner, treasurer. It was announced that the Adams County PTA Council will meet on Tuesday, November 26, in Bendersville; the program theme will be "Civil Defense."

During the social hour following the business, refreshments were served by Mrs. Junior T. Bittle, Mrs. Merle Bittle, Mrs. Earle J. Black, Mrs. James Erb, Mrs. George A. Kress Jr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Nester. In December, the PTA members will attend the annual Christmas musical to be presented by the Littlestown High School students on Tuesday, December 17, at 8 p.m.

Ladies' Aid To Meet
The Ladies' Aid Society of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the church. Mrs. George Yealy will be leader and the hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Fissel, Mrs. Roger Blair and Mrs. Glenn Myers.

Dr. Florence M. Gile, dean of the School of Nursing of the University of Maryland, was entertained recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse, E. King St. Dr. Gile attended the celebration in commemoration of the 125th anniversary of Gettysburg College.

Mrs. Allen Emley, near town, along the Gettysburg Rd., will be hostess to the Littlestown Homemakers for a meeting on Monday, 7:30 p.m. The discussion topic will be "The Culture and Care of House Plants."

Turkeys will be awarded as prizes at the weekly public party sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles on Friday evening, starting at 8 o'clock, at the F.O.E. Home, W. King St.

Annual Banquet Friday
The Senior Class of the Littlestown High School invites the public to attend the presentation of the three-act comedy, "The Family Tree," on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Thirteen girls of the class comprise the cast. Tickets may be secured from any Senior or at the door.

The annual father and son banquet of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, will take place at 7 p.m. on Friday in the parish hall. The meal will be served by the women of the church.

Shooting Match

The Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., will sponsor a shooting match on Friday, starting at 7:30 p.m. at the Fish and Game Farm, near town. Cash and turkeys will be given as prizes. Twelve gauge guns will be used and shells will be furnished. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Hadley W. Blocher and Robert Gladhill, co-chairmen, Paul L. Holinger, Robert W. Gouker, Marvin Miller, Lester Baumgardner, George C. DeHoff, Charles Snyder, Earl L. Stites and W. E. Stites.

The weekly public party will be held by St. Aloysius Catholic Church at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening in the parish hall. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available.

Clarence M. King, representative of Nationwide Insurance in Littlestown and vicinity, is one of 32 agents attending an advanced seminar at Nationwide's home office in Columbus, Ohio. The seminar, devoted principally to the study of advanced subjects in the insurance industry, began last Monday and will continue until Friday.

Paul E. Hiltzbrick Jr., supervisor of the Ground Observer Corps in Littlestown, has announced that a very important meeting of the GOC spotters will be held on Monday at 8 p.m. in the engine house. Due to the recent changes in the status of the GOC, the supervisor requests all active members of the Woman's Club, the Boy and Girl Scouts and all other active members to attend this meeting for special instructions and assignments.

Thugs Get Lumps From Irish Priest

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Father J. McNamany, a Roman Catholic priest, has a slight cut on his right hand today—but a couple of thugs may have some bruises.

Father McNamany said the thugs tried to rob him while he was walking along a dark street last night. Not a man to give up his wallet easily, the priest came up with fists swinging and the thugs beat a hasty retreat.

And with his Irish grin, the good father told police he still had his wallet.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Richard Patterson, a sharpshooter with his B.B. gun, hit the wrong bulls-eye when he put a shotgun shell on the ground, aimed, fired, and exploded it. A bit of the brass rim caromed off Richard's forehead. He was treated at a hospital for lacerations.

TESTIMONY OF GRAND JURY IS READ AT TRIAL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The commonwealth today introduced more grand jury testimony at the trial of eight men accused of conspiring to fleece the Turnpike Commission of half a million dollars.

Some testimony given before a special Dauphin County Grand Jury last year was read into the record yesterday as the trial finished out its second day of testimony.

"After we finish with the reading of grand jury testimony, we expect to close the commonwealth case," said Vincent G. Panati, deputy attorney general.

The testimony read yesterday by a court stenographer was given by Francis Chiazza, a former employee of Manu-Mine Research and Development Co., Reading. He was quoted as saying he had been approached by an employee of Rogers Bros. Construction Co. of Scranton, George Oswald, to accept bribes in return for falsely certifying receipt of shipments of material to fill abandoned mines under the turnpike's northeast extension.

Feared Loss Of Jobs
Manu-Mine held the contract to fill the voids and Rogers the contract to supply the filling material.

The eight men on trial include three members of the Rogers firm and five employed by Manu-Mine. They are charged with collecting money for fill never delivered.

Before the grand jury testimony was introduced, the Dauphin County jury heard three of the four men who have pleaded guilty to the charges testify they went along with the alleged scheme for fear of losing their jobs.

Some Snow Flurries In Great Lakes Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Generally cool weather prevailed across most of the country today. Precipitation was light, with snow flurries in the Great Lakes region and northern Plains. Northerly winds continued to fan cool Canadian air through the northern Plains and spread in all directions. Temperatures were surprisingly uniform in many areas.

Readings in the 20s were the rule from the western Great Lakes region through the northern Plains and Plateau states. They were in the 30s from the north and mid Atlantic Coast states westward through the central part of the country to Nevada.

In 23 years, West Point football coach Earl (Red) Blaik's teams have won 151 games, lost 46 and played 13 ties.

Notre Dame football coach Terry Brennan began the 1957 season with a three-year coaching record of 19 victories and 11 setbacks.

RUSS BRUSHOFF OF ARMS PLAN IRKS FRIENDS

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Russia's brushoff of Western efforts to break the disarmament deadlock may have demonstrated her new ICBM-Sputnik "position of strength." But it also put a severe strain on her friendship with many so-called neutral nations.

Delegates infer this from the lineup in the smashing 60-0 U.N. Assembly endorsement of the West's plan to increase the 12-nation Disarmament Commission to 25 members. Only the Soviet bloc voted against the proposal despite Russia's warning she would boycott the talks unless half the nations at the conference table were Communist or neutral.

The West had been confident of victory on the vote. But few had expected Syria and Egypt, who receive economic and military aid from Moscow, to vote for the plan. Nor had they anticipated support from such Asian neutrals as Ceylon and Indonesia, who usually show a marked preference for Soviet ideas.

Deeply Disturbed
A number of usually pro-Soviet delegations were deeply disturbed by Russia's ever-increasing demands during the East-West negotiations last week on enlarging the commission.

Yugoslav Communists, who played a key role in trying to bring the two sides together, became so annoyed by the Soviet tactics that they divorced themselves from the deal and quit the sponsor's list.

India, who originated the move to enlarge the commission, did not appreciate Russia's sudden rejection of the plan after the Indians had persuaded the West to go along with the compromise.

The Soviets also angered Austria and Finland, who chided them in the Assembly for placing their names on the Red list of commission candidates without telling them in advance.

No Intention To Cooperate
Most delegates could not accept Russia's contention that half the commission should be made up of

EISENHOWERS RETURN TODAY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower ends a week's vacation in Dixie today and flies back to Washington.

Communists and neutrals. The Reds total only one ninth of the Assembly, and even a Communist-neutral census adds up to considerably less than half the 82 nations.

After the Soviets had turned down three Western compromise offers, it became apparent to many that Russia had no intention of taking part in U. N. arms negotiations at this stage and would find some pretext for opposing any compromise.

Many diplomats believe the Kremlin leaders, bolstered by their spectacular success with space missiles, consider U. N. disarmament negotiations a waste of time and want the talks limited to the United States and Russia.

Tonight Eisenhower and the First Lady plan to attend a dinner at a private club honoring Herbert Brownell, who recently resigned as attorney general.

Associates said the President has benefited greatly from his week at the Augusta National Golf Club in advance of next month's NATO Council meeting in Paris. They described him as much refreshed.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, announced last night that Eisenhower will sit in at the first meeting of the new Civil Rights Commission Dec. 9 in Washington. That unit was provided for under legislation authorized by Congress at its last session.

The six-member commission will undertake a two-year study of civil rights problems.

N. Y. State Police Who Made Gang Raid Being Investigated

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—New York state police who broke up and investigated a "gangland conference" a week ago were under investigation themselves today.

Gov. Averell Harriman disclosed last night that he had ordered a number of inquiries by state agencies into the mobster meeting. One of them directs the state police superintendent to submit "a complete report on the conduct of the raid."

A spokesman said the governor wanted the report since criticism had been raised about the police action.

No Unrests Made
Troopers flushed out 60 men last Thursday from Joseph Barbara's remote country mansion in the hamlet of Apalachin in south-central New York. Many underworld luminaries were netted.

The troopers made no arrests. They said there was no charge on which to hold any of the guests. The visitors insisted they were visiting a sick friend—Barbara.

Although no arrests were made, it was the first time any police had interfered with and broken up a meeting of such magnitude.

Young GOP Favor McGonigle In 1958

READING, Pa. (AP)—Berks County's Young Republican Club last night boosted pretzel manufacturer Arthur T. McGonigle for the GOP nomination for governor in 1958.

McGonigle, of Reading, is Republican state finance chairman. Carrol D. Winters, county Republican chairman, suggested McGonigle for endorsement at a young launched their own broad probe. In New York City, U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams said the "crime cartel convention" had given "fresh impetus" to an investigation he has launched into rackets in the garment and trucking industries.

The state police superintendent, Francis S. McGarvey, endorsed the manner in which his subordinates had acted. They did "the best they could under the circumstances," he said.

The governor's spokesman was asked whether Harriman's call for a full report meant he had overruled McGarvey. The spokesman said Harriman simply wanted the report because of the criticism raised.

Lots Of Repercussions
The participants, however, will feel the full weight of the flood of investigations that the Apalachin meeting has sparked.

The governor ordered the state investigations commissioner, Arthur Reuter, to "look into the activities and associations of those attending the meeting."

The State Parole Board and the State Tax Department will also make their own inquiries, it was learned. State police have GOP meeting. He said McGonigle had become acquainted with party leaders in all 67 counties since becoming finance chairman.

McGonigle, speaker at the meeting, replied he was not running for any office. But Benneville N. Strohecker, chairman of the Young Republicans of the county, said he thought McGonigle would respond to a draft. A native of Kane, McGonigle is a Temple University graduate.

HOW TO ROAST YOUR TURKEY

Fill neck cavity with stuffing, draw neck skin to back of turkey and fasten flat with skewer. Fold wing tips up toward back, tying in place across the back, if necessary. Fill body cavity with stuffing, allowing for expansion. Close incision by inserting 3 skewers across opening and lacing together with cord, then wrap this cord around end of legs and tie securely to tail piece, so legs are close to body. Place breast up on rack of shallow pan. Brush turkey with melted unsalted fat and cover with cloth dipped into melted unsalted fat, being sure breast, wings and legs are well covered, or cover layer of body fat, then with clean cloth. Roast, uncovered, in slow oven (300 F) until tender. Allow 25 minutes per pound for birds under 12 pounds or 20 minutes per pound for larger birds. Baste several times with melted fat or with drippings in pan.

Season when half done. Cloth may be removed during last 1/2 hour for additional browning. Remove string and skewers before serving. Allow 3/4 lb to 1 lb per serving.

The world's most expensive sales talk

Door-to-door peddlers are now selling vitamin preparations and nutritional supplements. Good for what ails you, and all that. Here's the danger. You may buy the peddler's vitamins "for what ails you" and postpone that visit to your physician you were planning. And that can be dangerous. Dangerous to your health—your most precious possession. That's why the door-to-door peddler's sales talk can be expensive. Tragically expensive. Call Grand Jury To Drive Racketeers Out Of Long Is.

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—A special grand jury session has been called for tonight as Nassau County officials stepped up their campaign to drive racketeers out of this suburban Long Island area.

"There will be no invisible government in Nassau County," said Dist. Atty. Frank A. Gulotta in announcing an "all-out war" against shady characters.

The first skirmish came today when an ex-convict was brought in for questioning about his reported attendance at last Thursday's underworld meeting in upstate Apalachin.

The man picked up, John Big John Ormento, 45, of Lido Beach, was let go in the early morning hours with a warning to "get out of the county."

Twice Convicted
Gulotta said Ormento has been convicted twice as a narcotics seller and is connected with a garment industry trucking business in Manhattan and with a construction in the Bronx. Ormento had $1,641 on him when seized.

Ormento was questioned for an hour and a half about the Apalachin mobster meeting and about how he gets his money. Gulotta said not much information was gotten. He was warned that he would be kept under close police scrutiny until he got out of Nassau County. No charge was placed against him.

A big factor in the burst of official activity is the bad smell in the private garbage removal industry which was highlighted at last week's hearings in Washington before the Senate committee investigating rackets in the fields of management and labor.

Watch Mobster Homes
Witnesses told of mobster control of a large segment of the industry in Nassau County, New York City and suburban Suffolk and Westchester counties.

Nassau County police motor patrols are to keep homes of racketeers under surveillance and make their continued residence in the territory uncomfortable.

The countrywide attack on the underworld began yesterday as federal officials in New York City disclosed their failure to locate two key witnesses in the investigation of Vincent J. Squillante, self-styled godson of the slain mobster Albert Anastasia.

Is Racket Boss
Squillante, 40 years old and 5-foot-11, is the reputed racket boss of the 50-million-dollar-a-year garbage and rubbish pickup business in the metropolitan area.

The New York Daily Mirror said today it learned that Squillante resigned last night as "industrial representative" of the Greater New York Carpenters Assn., which figured in testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee last week.

The Nassau County crackdown came after a Long Island garbage hauler charged that his employees were being molested because of testimony he gave last week to the Senate committee about the Nassau-Suffolk garbage crime ring on Long Island.

The garbage hauler, John Montezano, complained that after he testified, Teamsters Union business agents trailed and stopped his trucks on the highways to "talk" with his drivers.

Cooperative Witness
Montezano was described as a "cooperative" witness before the committee. He and his brother Anthony — also called "cooperative" — told the committee that Squillante had attempted to gain a monopoly in the Nassau County carting industry.

After hearing John Montezano's charge of harassment, Gulotta ordered the county police department to keep all known hoodlums under close scrutiny and to make things here unpleasant for them.

He said the alleged incidents reported by Montezano were attempts "to intimidate local cartmen who were courageous enough to testify" last week before the Senate committee.

The district attorney, in calling tonight's extraordinary session of the grand jury to hear witnesses, told newsmen that "some indictments" were expected.

BLAST SINKS ITALIAN SHIP

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—The 2,285-ton Italian freighter Anna Maria Ievoli sank alongside a Naples dock today soon after a violent explosion ripped through her mid-section.

Two Italians were known dead and two to five workers, believed trapped underwater aboard the wreck, were presumed dead. More than 35 persons were injured, half a dozen of them seriously.

A U.S. Navy spokesman said no American ships or Navy men were near the scene of the blast. He added that the Navy offered help but Italian officials said they had the situation under control.

The ship went down in 40 feet of water. Only part of her bow projected above the surface.

Drivers from the Naples fire department were sent down to investigate. The cause of the explosion was not immediately determined.

The blast shattered windows in nearby buildings. Many of the in-

PLANE MISSING SINCE LAST MAY FOUND IN WOODS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—State police and Civil Aeronautics Administration investigators returned to Ellmsport Mountain south of here today to examine the wreckage of a plane, missing since last May, which was found yesterday.

The plane was identified as the Piper Super Cub being ferried by 23-year-old Dewey Fisher Jr. of Norfolk, Va., from Lock Haven to Norfolk for delivery to a dealer there.

Cpl. Earl Moore, state police aeronautics investigator attached to the Montoursville barracks, said a skeleton was found at the scene, on the side of a 1,400-foot mountain near the small Locomotive County community of Ellmsport.

Moore said the plane, which was identified from the manufacturer's serial number stamped on the fuselage, had burned after it crashed.

The wreckage was spotted from the air by a Milton pilot, Harry Neideg. Investigators reached the scene shortly before nightfall. Neideg had been asked by Fisher's father, Dewey Sr., an oil company employee, to make a flying search of the area.

The elder Fisher has been in this area seeking the cooperation of forest rangers and hunters in looking for the missing plane.

Offered $500 Reward
He had distributed posters describing the route his son planned to follow after leaving Lock Haven. Earlier this week he had offered a $500 reward to anyone finding any trace of either his son or the plane.

State police had not been able to locate the father last night, however, after the wreckage was found.

Young Fisher took off from Lock Haven May 23, flying alone in the two-seater, single engine plane. A bad storm moved in shortly after he left. The last word from him was his radio report that he would try to reach the Susquehanna River and follow its route south because of the weather conditions.

The wreckage was found in almost a direct line between Lock Haven and the river.

Les Dye is in his ninth season as freshman football coach at Syracuse University.

jured were passers-by cut by flying glass.

Eighteen crewmen and 10 workers, all Italians, were aboard the ship completing a cleaning job. The vessel was to have sailed later today for Catania, Sicily.

Turnpike "Play" Is Fatal To Youth

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Juvenile "horseplay" with rifles on the Pennsylvania Turnpike last night resulted in the death of a 15-year-old Bucks County boy, police reported.

The lad, Harry E. Martin of Newportville Heights, died in Low-ry Bucks County Hospital of a brain wound.

Police chief William F. Riemp of Bensalem Two, said Martin and three other boys had been playing with rifles on the turnpike about one-fourth mile north of Newportville road. Riemp said Martin was shot by Robert Shultz, 15, of Newport Terrace.

SET UP CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride set up a division of civil rights in the State Justice Department today to look into infringement of any rights guaranteed to citizens by the U.S. and state constitutions.

The State Executive Board authorized the new division yesterday on motion of McBride. He named Dep. Atty. Gen. Victor H. Wright to head the division.

McBride said the division's purpose was "enforcement by means of persuasion, mediation and everything short of positive court action unless that is found to be necessary."

McBride said the need for the new division stemmed from the U. S. Supreme Court decision banning segregation in public schools and recent disorders that attended the moving of a Negro family into the previously all-white Levittown development, near Philadelphia.

McBride said the division will be staffed by the Justice Department and will work with the state police in checking complaints of violations.

EGYPT WILL GET $175 MILLION FROM RUSSIANS

By ANGELO NATALE

CAIRO (AP)—Russia's pledge of economic aid for Egypt is reported to mean a 175-million-dollar loan for President Nasser's five-year industrialization plan.

The semi-official Middle East News Agency said last night the agreement announced in Moscow Tuesday calls for Russia to provide 700 million rubles worth of aid. The official Soviet exchange rate is four rubles to the dollar.

Neither a joint Russian-Egyptian news agency report said what form the aid would take. But it was assumed that, as in the case of Syria, the rubles would pay for Russian materials, equipment and technical advisers.

Returns From Moscow
Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, the Egyptian war minister who negotiated the agreement with the Kremlin, flew home from Moscow yesterday in a Soviet jet airliner. He gave Nasser a two-hour report on his visit.

Although Soviet Premier Bulganin had said Russia's aid to Egypt and other Middle East countries is "selfless," the communiqué said Amer and the development, near Philadelphia.

McBride said the division will be staffed by the Justice Department and will work with the state police in checking complaints of violations.

Kremlinites had discussed "political cooperation" as well as economic cooperation and military questions. There was no elaboration of any of this.

The Middle East News Agency said that starting in five years Egypt would repay the loan over a 12-year period. It did not say where Egypt would get the money or what the interest rate would be. Syria is to pay 2.5 per cent for her Russian aid.

Economic experts say Egypt has been economically dependent on the Communist bloc since she started trading cotton for arms in 1955. The cotton, which provides about 80 per cent of Egypt's foreign exchange, is believed heavily mortgaged in the future to pay for arms although Egyptian officials have denied any written commitments on future crops.

"TREMENDOUS BOOST"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lt. Gov. R. E. Furman says Rep. Hiram G. Andrews' endorsement of his gubernatorial aspirations has given him a "tremendous boost."

Andrews, Cambria County Democrat and a former speaker of the House, Tuesday suggested a slate of Democratic candidates headed by Furman for governor and Gov. Leader for U. S. senator.

"I am extremely grateful to him for the confidence expressed in my possible candidacy," Furman said in a statement.

DEFY BAN ON CAMPUS DANCE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Students at Wake Forest College jilted the campus dance and burned in effigy the retiring president of the Baptist State Convention after the convention ruled out campus dancing.

About 500 or 600 students, mostly male, participated in the demonstration last night at the Baptist-supported school.

Hi-fi record players blasted at full volume as the laughing and cheering crowd of students danced and shouted such slogans as "Down with the Baptists."

Student leaders said about 25 per cent of the student body joined in the protest against the Baptist State Convention action in Raleigh. The convention overwhelmingly vetoed campus dancing and apparently ended a lengthy controversy on the topic. School trustees previously had voted to allow dancing.

Dulles Says NATO Would Fight Back At Once If Attack Comes

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles says that forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would "almost certainly fight back" without waiting for a declaration of war if attacked in the field.

Dulles told newsmen last night such a decision would be made on the spot by field commanders. He said the attack "almost certainly would involve American troops because the NATO forces are so intermingled."

Stevenson Along
Fire certainly would be returned, he added, "if it were something comparable to Pearl Harbor, say."

The remarks arose from a question about the "time for decision" in the event of a possible atomic attack on NATO forces.

Adlai Stevenson, the two-time Democratic presidential candidate who has become a consultant to the Eisenhower administration on Atlantic Alliance problems, came to Chicago with Dulles. He told reporters he will do all he can to help in his post as consultant to the Republican administration.

Not On Team
However, Stevenson added that he was "certainly not" a member of President Eisenhower's team. He said he has not been asked to attend next month's big NATO meeting in Paris with Eisenhower and Dulles. "There won't be a decision on that until later," he said.

Stevenson says that he will review and discuss U. S. plans to be placed before the NATO conference.

Dulles said Stevenson "will be on the federal payroll a long, long time." If the former Illinois governor approves of this country's NATO proposals, Dulles said, he has expressed a willingness to work for their adoption abroad and in this country.

Dulles, in an extemporaneous speech before members of the Council on Foreign Relations last night, said the launching of Russian earth satellites would be a very good thing indeed if they lead us to realize the magnitude of our peril.

Bodyguard Kills Leader, Surrender

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—After assassinating a Karen rebel leader in southeast Burma, the 136 members of his bodyguard battalion surrendered to the army yesterday. It was the second surrender of a rebel group in 10 days.

Bo Soe, the leader of Karen rebels in Tenasserim province, was killed after his men got a go-ahead signal from the government. They had informed officials they would assassinate him because he would not surrender.

Eight separate insurrections against the central government are still going. Some of them that began as separatist movements after Burma became independent Jan. 4, 1948, have become primarily bandit operations.

The season of 1957 was a baseball milestone for Milwaukee reserve first baseman Frank Torre. It was the first time he played for the team he had been with the previous season.

GIVES POINTERS FOR SAFE, SURE XMAS MAILING

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield today outlined ten basic pointers for users of the mails to follow in order to assure prompt and safe delivery of their Christmas cards and gifts this year:

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly or print plainly and always use zone numbers in the address and return address. Avoid abbreviations since this may lead to confusion.
2. Use the 3-cent letter rate on cards and letters. Be certain a return address is printed in the upper left hand corner of both Christmas cards and parcels. This will prevent undelivered mail ending up in a dead letter office.
3. Do not enclose coins or hard objects of any kind in letters. Cancelling machines cannot process such letters and often damage the letter and contents.

Use Money Orders
4. Do not mail money in Christmas gifts or letters. For safety's sake, use postal money orders or checks.

5. Separate your letters to "local" and "out-of-town." This will speed all the mail and relieve much of congestion in post offices.

6. Make certain that parcels are well packed and securely wrapped in strong containers. Cushioning material, such as excelsior, shredded newspaper or tissue paper should be evenly and firmly placed on all sides of the Christmas gift. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and securely tied with strong twine.

7. Gifts of a delicate nature, such as glass, china, electrical appliances, radios and musical instruments, must be marked "Fragile" by the mailer. Food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if subject to spoilage.

Insure Parcels
8. Insure parcels. Register letters of real value. Where only proof of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value use Certified Mail. Use Combination Mail where a letter or message—other than a gift tag—is to be enclosed inside a Christmas package.

9. Mail Christmas cards and parcels early to avoid the last minute rush and waiting in line at the post office. The best time to avoid crowds at stamp windows in most Travis, Kathryn Wakefield, Guy Weikert, Richard Weikert, Janet White, Conway Williams, Karen Wilson, Rosemary Wilt, Doris Yingling and Eileen Zeigler.

post offices are before 10 a.m. and between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.
10. Every postal employee is happy to answer questions on postal rules and regulations. Anyone with problems about mailing his Christmas parcels should avail himself of the opportunity of discussing the problems with postal employees, and take advantage of their experience.

Free Pamphlets
Ask at any post office for the free pamphlet, "Post Office Department Publication No. 3," which contains rates of postage and limits of size and weight for domestic mail. Another free pamphlet at post offices is entitled "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels For Mailing."

Mr. Summerfield further emphasized how important it is to start planning now to shop early and mail early for Christmas.

"Our loyal and dedicated postal employees, whose efforts during every Christmas season are so commendable, must depend upon public cooperation to help get their job done. We know that all citizens will recognize the importance of this, and will again extend us this cooperation and help," the Postmaster General added.

British railways are not yet completely electrified — 151 steam locomotives have been ordered for the coming year.

In assisting a blind person, do not attempt to "push" him. Give him your arm and let him guide himself by the way you move.

CANADIANS HAVE MILK DELIVERED BY QUART BLOCK

WINNIPEG (AP) — Delivery of fresh milk in frozen quart-size blocks, to be melted at room temperature for use, is believed to have solved the problem of milk delivery at a northern Canadian military base, an army spokesman says.

Experimental deliveries in this form, believed to be the first in Canada, were successful.

The spokesman said 10,000 quarts of milk, frozen in waxpaper, quart containers, were shipped 1,000 miles by railway refrigerator car from Winnipeg to Fort Churchill, Man.

"Not Altered"
He said medical authorities found the milk's quality was not altered by freezing and melting and it remained good for from seven to 10 days. They said it might even be superior in quality to fluid milk delivered nearer the source.

Previously the base had no fresh milk. Cows can not be pastured on the barren lands around the base. Slow delivery of fluid milk by rail was not feasible.

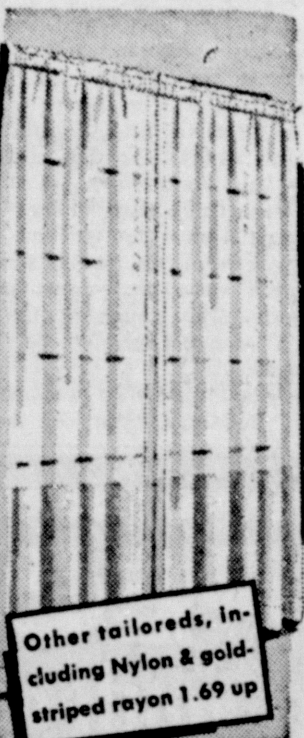

The cars move to Churchill on the three-weekly service Canadian National Railways.

GSA WILL PROBE FUTURE PLEAS FROM COLLEGES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General State Authority indicated on Tuesday it is going to be tougher on state teachers' colleges on the question of revising building programs.

One member, Sen. John H. Dent, Senate democratic leader, was critical of college boards which he said make their basic requests on needs for more dormitories, then later try to switch the allocations to other construction.

"Why do we build a lot of swimming pools, power plants and utilities," he asked, "and cut back on dormitory construction?"

A request by West Chester State Teachers College to revise its dormitory building program in order to erect a new music building-auditorium precipitated the GSA discussion.

The revision was endorsed by the State Department of Public Instruction, but the money comes from the GSA.

Changed Plans

The college has been authorized to spend $3,928,000 for its building program. That originally was to include the music building plus dormitory accommodations for 300 men and 250 women. However rising costs made a revision necessary. The college decided to build dormitories for only 218 men and 182 women in order to keep the music building in the project.

The GSA delayed action on the proposal and Gov. Leader, head of the board, said the authority's technical staff will see if it "can talk them (members of the college board) into changing their minds."

In other action, the board: Increased Shippensburg State Teachers College's allocation for a men's dormitory and utility expansion from $506,000 to $537,365 because of a change in building sites necessitated by underground soil conditions.

Voted to offer $38,000 for 2.8 acres of land next to the Lock Haven State Teachers College. The owners of the land have asked for $49,500 and the board's appraisers have valued the land at $33,500. The compromise was made to avoid taking the case to court.

Gave the city of York the right to build a street across .036 acres at the rear of the York state police barracks.

Ask Low Tax For Small Business

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) Wednesday urged lower taxes on small business as a means of reducing small business failures. Clark said he is confident that some action will be taken in the coming session of Congress to provide small business relief.

The senator's remarks were made in a statement submitted to a hearing before the House Select Committee on Small Business.

Clark now is vacationing in Italy. Upon his return to the United States Dec. 4, Clark will begin Senate subcommittee hearings on housing in Portland, Maine, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Clark's statement today noted that the federal tax rate on business now is 30 per cent of all taxable income and another 22 per cent of income in excess of $25,000.

8-MILE ROAD OPENED BY PA.

YORK, Pa. (AP) — An eight-mile stretch of the Harrisburg to Baltimore expressway was officially opened Wednesday.

The section prepared for ribbon cutting ceremonies, Gov. Leader outlined these plans for the rest of the project, built as part of the federal interstate system.

An 11-mile section of four-lane highway, now in use between New Cumberland and Strinestown, will be converted in the near future to limited access.

A bypass will soon be underway to carry traffic around York to the east. South of York this will link up with a final section of the expressway, which he called the "Susquehanna Expressway" after the old Susquehanna Trail which it replaces, to the Maryland border.

Part of this final section should be ready for use by next year. Leader also said a limited access, four-lane east-west highway also is planned for York County. A route survey is now underway, he said.

Rory Calhoun, 23-year-old mid-dleweight, is the son of a Georgia minister.

AIR FORCE IS OPPOSING ARMY MISSILE PLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the Air Force has placed a policy paper before the Joint Chiefs of Staff "taking exception to Army proposals for a major program to develop anti-missile missiles."

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper added that "the Air Force disputes the arguments for a contramissile advanced by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff."

The story also said in part: Studies on this weapon have figured in service budget presentations this week before the Joint Chiefs.

The Air Force presentation made at the same time as the Army's—disputes the Army plan on strategic grounds. It also questions whether Army development of a weapon to destroy long-range enemy ballistic missiles is advanced far enough to warrant huge expenditures.

Estimate 6 Billions
One Army estimate was that it would cost about six billion dollars to develop a ballistic missile "killer" by 1961. The Army's advocacy of this program was prompted by reported Soviet advances in ballistic missiles.

The Times printed a Washington story yesterday saying the Eisenhower administration was being urged by the Army to spend between six and seven billion dollars to produce an operational antimissile by 1961.

Secretary of Defense McElroy, asked yesterday for comment on the story, said the story "is something I need enlightening on also."

McElroy denied that Taylor had placed the antimissile program before him. The Times story of yesterday said Taylor made the proposal to McElroy and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

McElroy said: "There is a great deal we need to know in terms of development before there can be any such program" put into production.

MAY UNIONIZE PENN STATE U.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Charles C. Levey, an international vice president of the AFL-CIO Building Service Employees, says he has asked the state attorney general's office to rule whether Pennsylvania State University is a public institution or a private enterprise which would open it to a strike by employees.

State Act 492 prohibits strikes against public institutions.

Levey said he sent a letter to Harrisburg yesterday asking for the ruling on behalf of Union Local 417 at the university.

The official says the maintenance personnel of Local 417 have been unable to obtain what they consider proper wages and working conditions.

The situation "has now reached a critical stage where a walkout impends," Levey said in his letter, adding:

"I am requesting from you (Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride) an opinion whether the university, which operates the Nittany Lion Inn and other commercial enterprises for a profit would qualify under the 'no strike' provision of the legislative act."

McSORLEY FILES FOR NEW TRIAL

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dauphin County has before it today a petition for a new trial for G. Franklin McSorley, suspended Pennsylvania Turnpike Commissioner convicted last Saturday of misconduct in office.

His attorneys, Carl B. Shelley and Warren G. Morgan, filed the motion yesterday. Among other things, they contend the Pittsburgh Democrat was prejudiced because the September trial list showed two entries against him: One on the charge of misconduct for which he was tried and the other on a charge of conspiracy "when in no truth no such indictment had been found."

McSorley was convicted on charges he kept former Chairman Thomas J. Evans' chauffeur on the turnpike payroll after Evans left the commission although the chauffeur continued to drive for Evans.

Catholic Youths In Convention

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The bandwagon of more than 15,000 young people and adult delegates from 130 Roman Catholic dioceses met here today at the 6th National Conference on Catholic youth work.

Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago was to preside at a mass at the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul, formally opening the five-day meeting.

At a preliminary meeting last night for clergy, nuns and adult laymen engaged in Catholic youth organization work, Gov. Leininger declared that juvenile delinquency is a "grave and immediate problem to the nation."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

It's All Mine

William Bushika, 8, of North Adams, Mass., is all smiles as he proudly points to 110-pound spikehorn buck he shot with a 12-gauge shotgun as his father, Arthur, looks on dejectedly. Bill shot the deer at Halifax, Vt., where the pair were hunting together. The youngster frequently hunts rabbits and squirrels but this was his first crack at big game. (AP Wirephoto)

UNHAPPY OVER PINEAU VISIT

PARIS (AP)—All sections of the French press today expressed disappointment over the results of Foreign Minister Christian Pineau's visit to Washington to protest the American arms delivery of Tunisia.

Pineau went to New York last night after talks with Secretary of State Dulles.

"Slim Results of Pineau-Dulles Talks," headlined the conservative Aurore, while the extreme right Aurore talked of "the disappointing trip of Pineau to the land of Dulles."

"Pineau, after meeting Dulles, left with empty hands," commented Aurore. "The evidence is that, in Washington as in London, one must reckon on an aggravated North African situation, and one is busy making it worse."

Aurore said the work on Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd "against French interests in Africa" was "a strange preparation for the next North Atlantic Council meeting and the grave decisions which must be taken there." The summit meeting of NATO leaders begins Dec. 16 in Paris.

Some Stocks Show Good Gains Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, rails and nonferrous metals paced the stock market to a vigorous rise early today.

Key stocks advanced from fractions to 2 or more points.

The market was continuing the upsurge of late yesterday when Wall Street was buoyed by strong rumors that the Federal Reserve Board would take further credit-easing steps today. At the same time, the short interest figures were reported after yesterday's close as the highest since 1932—actually a bullish sign because it provides a big cushion of potential buyers into the market.

On the American stock exchange prices were higher. Corporate bonds were mixed.

Mao Returns From Visit To Moscow

HONG KONG (AP)—Mao Tse-tung returned to Peking today after an 18-day visit to Moscow.

A Soviet jet airliner brought the Communist Chinese chairman home. Peking radio announced his arrival.

Mao was one of the last of the foreign Communist leaders to return from the 40th anniversary celebration of the Bolshevik Revolution. The public jubilee was accompanied by top-level conferences, presumably on strengthening of Communist solidarity, but so far there has been no announcement that anything new was decided.

MODERN CHURCH BUILT CHEAPLY BY NEW DESIGN

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A church with a roof that has been likened to a sail, a bird, a kite and a ship is nearing completion in suburban Elm Grove.

Architects and engineers have still another designation for the roof. They call it a hyperbolic paraboloid. But what it amounts to is a surface with a double curve—two diagonal corners are pushed down and the other two are pushed up.

One thing is certain, the new home for the congregation of St. Edmund's Episcopal Church is an eye-catcher, and the roof is the thing that will attract the most attention. It soars upward at the altar end.

Third Such Roof
William P. Wenzler, the architect who designed the church, says it will be the second or third such roof in the United States and the third or fourth in the world. A home near Raleigh, N. C., has one and a cabana being built in Illinois has a roof based on the same theory although it doesn't look the same, and a Mexican church is reported to have a similar roof.

Cost Less Than $80,000
The Rev. James R. De Gollier, vicar of St. Edmund's, said Gothic

The new building had risen steadily until it reached the level on which pretty Adele Mavis was posing in the raw. After that it rose no higher, and the workmen spent most of their time on the side next to the art school. The foreman investigated, saw Adele and appealed to Skinner. The new building will house the College of Further Education.

AIR FORCE DOGS WEAR SHOES ON PATROL DUTIES

LANDSTUHL, Germany (AP)—If anyone comes prowling around the big U. S. Air Force base here he runs a good chance of a rough encounter with a big sharp-eyed and sharp-toothed watchdog.

And what's more, that dog will probably be wearing shoes!

German sheep dogs, or schaeferhunds, have been enlisted in the big job of patrolling this sprawling airbase.

The schaeferhund has a long tradition as a faithful shepherd's helper and watchdog. Gentle and responsive to handlers, he can be trained to attack intruders with fierce courage.

Much of the airbase patrol duty takes the dogs over hard concrete runways. Shortly after they were first assigned to the important guard duty, their German handlers noticed that the constant padding over the concrete was giving them sore feet.

The problem was solved with shoes.

Expert German shoemakers fashion each set of dog shoes from tracings of the animal's foot print.

At first the dogs fussed at the footwear but by now they have become accustomed to the idea and would no more go on duty without them than would their two-legged human buddies.

Furthermore the pampered and valuable watchdogs have a choice of footwear. Each one is equipped with several sets of shoes.

And when it comes to inspection the privileged animals are even luckier than their soldier buddies. The handlers do the polishing for them.

BANKERS ELECT

We want more horsepower even though it means that the cars may fall apart in five years. We want power and speed, although few can say why.

Tyranny Of Time

"Golf is a game designed to provide exercise. But ask the operators of golf courses. The only persons who walk on the golf course are the older men. They have time to walk. The younger ones want to use mechanized cars to rush around the course as quickly as possible. This is the age of speed. They probably will have nothing to do when they get through, but they want to get at it as soon as possible.

"The tyranny of time is not an abstraction, it governs everything we do. Ten or so years ago we welcomed back the heroes. They had fought for us, they had saved us. We could not, we felt, do enough for them. Today we find people complaining of wounded veterans in hospitals as a drain on the taxpayer and the veterans' organizations which would seek to retain the best of care for veterans termed greedy.

"The fellow who gave us a lift when we needed it is forgotten, and the good deeds we were going to do never get done, because we don't have the time.

Better To Do Well

"Time is a stern master, it is very demanding, it accepts no excuses. We seek to beat time, knowing it cannot be done. We see how much we can do and how far we can push ourselves even though we know heart disease is the great killer. We ought not to do it, and we ought not attempt to force other to do it.

"Perhaps it would be well if all of us went to see the Grand Canyon. It didn't start yesterday, it will not be gone tomorrow.

"And perhaps we should emphasize not how much we can do, but how well we can do a few things. You can't do the same kind of work in a day as you can in a week — no matter how hard you try."

The Misses Nancy Sheaffer, Bernice Thrush, and Ruth Ann Musselman, accompanied by Jean Linah, all of Biglerville High School, sang several selections. Rev. Nevin Frantz gave the invocation.

WILL SUBPOENA UNION RECORDS

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate racket investigators said today they will subpoena convention election records of Teamsters locals in the union's Central Conference.

Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel of the special Senate committee, said only a few locals in the conference headed by James R.
Hoffa have complied voluntarily with a committee request for the information.

Compliance has been better elsewhere, Kennedy said, with "a little over 50 per cent" of the records received and others promised.

Kennedy said that over 75 per cent of the delegates to whom information has been received so far were elected in violation of the union's constitution.

The records, which Chairman
McClellan (D-Ark.) asked by letter

LEADER REGIME WILL BE TARGET OF GOP IN 1958

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "The Leader administration's program of lies, deception and reckless waste of taxpayers' money" will be the principal issues in the 1958 gubernatorial campaign, Republican State Chairman George I. Binom told GOP women today.

He also warned them, in a speech prepared for the 35th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women here, that "we face no easy task in the months ahead. It is going to be a long, hard pull as the result of the November elections clearly showed."

Democrats scored a number of upsets in local elections this month.

Not Discouraged
"I am not the least bit discouraged by those results," Bloom added. "While there were some disappointments, there were like wise many encouraging victories."

... We laid a solid foundation for overwhelming victory in 1958."

Spelling out his attack on the Leader administration, Bloom accused the Democrats of backing down on reorganization of the state government which Bloom said was a major promise by Leader.

He attacked the governor's program of higher education shelved in the 1957 Legislature as a "give-away program designed to get votes rather than solve the problems of higher education."

Mental Health Program
The Leader administration's handling of the highway construction program also came under fire from Bloom who said it "bogged down miserably because politics destroyed the efficiency of the Highways Department when Lead-

Boy Accidentally Shot By Brother

HAWLEY, Pa. (AP) — A pump gun held by a 15-year-old boy accidentally discharged and killed his 12-year-old brother, police reported last night.

The victim was James R. Mang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Mang of Hawley. Police said he was struck over the right eye when the gun went off as he and his brother, Harold Jr., were playing with it in a bedroom of the Mang home. An accidental death verdict was issued by Howard Raught, Wayne County coroner.

Chinese Announce Nov. 6 Execution

HONG KONG (AP) — Peiping radio today reported the execution of "counterrevolutionary" Lo Chikuei, accused of fingering the 1943 murders of Mao Tse-tung's brother and two other senior Communists.

The broadcast said he was executed Nov. 6 after the Supreme Court in Peiping upheld the death sentence.

Lo was arrested in June 1956 and sentenced by a municipal court to 20 years imprisonment. The Peiping people daily said a new trial was ordered after a "flood of protests" that the sentence was too lenient.

er became governor."

Turning to mental health, Bloom said the Republican party would adopt "a sound program in keeping with modern treatment and within our means." He accused the Democratic administration of trying "to make it appear that all that is needed to solve the mental health problem is dollars and more dollars."

Bloom credited Republican Legislative leaders with creating a tax climate favorable to industry and

Members of the Plymouth colony had good reason in December, 1621, for looking forward to the forthcoming festival of Thanksgiving—a difficult year had ended and a successful harvest was completed.

Now, 336 years later, homemakers have equally good reason for looking forward to Thanksgiving.

They know that with a little caution in the kitchen—and some advance preparations—chances are pretty good that they and their families will survive the nationally holiday unscathed.

Of course, there still are hazards connected with the event, even though they're not quite the same as those the settlers faced.

Today, fixing the feast is as easy as well as opening a package (make that several packages) of frozen food, according to Miss Martha Kohl, home economist of the National Safety Council.

said the Leader administration now "is buying advertisement in out-of-state newspapers to laud the very fact that we have a sales tax in Pennsylvania that is fair to industry and that we do not have a personal income tax."

Bloom pointed out that Leader opposed the sales tax and supported a personal income tax when he took office as governor.

The 20th century homemaker can, by planning ahead, keep last-minute preparations to a minimum. With the help of a freezer she can prepare the fruit cocktail, cranberries, turkey and pies ahead of time, Miss Kohl said.

Or, if she wants, she can buy most of the Thanksgiving meal in prepared mixes that require little work or time.

Well, just what hazards does Mrs. Homemaker of 1957 face, then?

"As usual, everyone will want to get into the act in the kitchen," she said.
"Not only do too many cooks spoil the broth, but too many cooks clutter up the kitchen, and may cause the homemaker to get flustered, perhaps trip or slip, or spill things."

What can homemakers do to make Thanksgiving a day of leisure—one to spend with friends and relatives—rather than a day of danger?

Miss Kohl advises that they:

1. Get ready for the meal weeks ahead of time by buying and preparing much of the food.

2. Get a good night's sleep (that goes for the whole family), then start the day off right with a good breakfast to keep fatigue at a minimum.

3. Keep children—a hazard greater than sharp knives or hot pans—out of the kitchen.

4. Be cautious when cooking the meal. "Just because you're using an electric or gas stove instead of an old-fashioned wood-burner doesn't mean you're safe from burns," Miss Kohl said. "Today's stoves can burn you just as badly as those your grandmother used."

Through all the holiday hubbub, one member of the family usually keeps pretty well out of the way—the man of the family. By comparison, he has things pretty soft.

His time comes, though, when the turkey must be carved. Like his forefathers, he'll be exposing himself to danger from a carving knife.

Miss Kohl, however, has a couple of tips for him, too: "Be sure the knife's sharp. And cut away from you," she said.

Auditor General Says State Was Cheated In Cinder Buys

HARRISBURG (AP)—An investigation of state cinder purchases fanned out today into controversy between two Republican and Democratic department heads.

Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith said his records showed the State Highways Department was defrauded of "hundreds of thousands of dollars" in cinder purchases in the first 26 months of the Leader administration.

Atty. Gen. Thomas C. McBride called Smith's statement "premature" and said the State Justice Department has been investigating the cinder situation since last spring.

Rep. A. J. Petrosky (D-Westmoreland) denied — as Smith claimed — that he was one of the owners of two firms which sold 28,000 tons of cinders to the Highways Department.

Denies Connection
Reached at his home Tuesday night at Slickville, Petrosky, chairman of the House Highways Committee, was asked if he was connected with any cinder firms doing business with the state.

"No, I am not, never was, and never intended to be," he replied.

Petrosky said he was embarrassed because of his wife and family. He added, referring to Smith's reported aspirations to run for governor next year:

"Some people become too eager to become a high public official. Are they (his family) supposed to suffer because somebody wants to be governor?"

Petrosky said his brother, Frank, owned the two firms to which Smith referred.

"Collusion, Conspiracy"
The Smith and McBride statements developed from special news conferences the two called Tuesday afternoon. Smith called the first one, McBride called in newsmen 2½ hours later to tell his side.

Smith used such terms as "cheating, collusion and conspiracy" in stating what he termed discrepancies his auditors found in records of cinder purchases by the state highways department.

"I know of nothing that has been achieved by this disclosure," McBride told reporters when asked about Smith's statement.

Asked if he believed Smith was playing politics by his statement at a time the Justice Department was making its own inquiry, Mc-

Bride replied:

"I'm not going to charge Smith or anyone else with politics."

Smith asked McBride for copies of cinder records that the Justice Department may have acquired during its investigation. He said the records were needed to complete his own special audit.

Both McBride and Secretary of Highways Lewis M. Stevens declined to comment on what they thought of the accuracy of Smith's special audit until after all the facts are in.

The Justice Department probe has resulted in the conviction of seven persons—five for cinders used in Cambria County and two for those bought for York County. Two additional persons face trial for cinder purchases in Lancaster and Chester counties.

Cites Purchases
Smith said 239,000 tons of cinders were purchased for 600 miles of roads in Cambria County in the 26 months ending last Feb. 28 compared to 15,000 tons for 810 miles in adjacent Bedford County in the same period.

Breaking the figure down further, Smith said cinder purchases in Cambria County were at the rate of 198 tons per mile per year compared to 39 tons per mile per year for adjacent Blair County and 9½ tons for Bedford County.

One cinder delivery record, he added, showed that 39 tons of cinders were delivered in a single truckload.

Tells Of Irregularities

"This is an impossibility," Smith said. "There is no truck built that will carry that volume."

The auditor general said Glenn F. Bowser, dismissed last March as a Highways Department employee in Armstrong County, told department officials of alleged cinder irregularities in his county.

Cancelled checks, he said, showed F. J. Petrosky, to be the owner of the Salem Supply Co.

Smith said Salem Supply weigh slips showed one truck driver made 23 trips on March 14, 1955, delivering cinders from Carpenterstown in Westmoreland County to the highway shed at Somerset, 30 miles away.

"The driver would have to travel 1,320 miles in making 22 deliveries all on the same day," said Smith. "He is listed as driving five different trucks to make these deliveries."

LEGAL DEFENSE FUND CREATED FOR JIM HOFFA

CHICAGO (AP)—The Tribune said Wednesday that a legal defense fund which may reach two million dollars is being raised by officials of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters for the use of James R. Hoffa, the union's president-elect, and other teamster officers.

The Tribune said this was disclosed by Harold J. Gibbons of St. Louis, a Teamster international vice president.

Gibbons, who was not immediately available to confirm the Tribune story, was quoted as saying he hoped to receive $1,000 contributions from 2,000 union officers in 800 Teamster locals throughout the country and in Canada.

Will Use Notes

He said the defense fund would be raised through promissory notes for $1,000 and a $40 interest payment that would be "made available" to all Teamster officers. The notes, to be paid at the rate of $44 a month for two years, are made payable to a St. Louis trust headed by Gibbons and six other Teamster officials, the St. Louis vice president said.

Gibbons said Hoffa never was consulted in the preliminary discussions about setting up the fund after the union's convention in Miami last month. He declined to disclose the names of the trust officers who would approve disbursements from the fund to Hoffa and other Teamsters.

He added officers contributing to the fund will be required to use their own money and will not be permitted to accept reimbursement from their unions.

A federal court order in Washington has prevented Hoffa from assuming the union presidency. Hoffa, who has been criticized by Senate investigators because of his associations with hoodlums, also faces perjury and wiretap-

Telephone Company Will Issue Bonds

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Conestoga Telephone and Telegraph Co. of Birdsboro has been authorized to issue $375,000 worth of securities to help finance plant additions, pay off construction loans and issue a common stock dividend.

The Public Utility Commission authorized the issue on Tuesday. The utility said it would sell $250,000 worth of preferred stock for plant expansion and to pay off construction loans and $125,000 worth of common stock as a dividend.

Conestoga has 10,000 subscribers in Berks, Chester, Lancaster, Lehigh and Montgomery counties.

PENNSY DIVIDEND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Wednesday declared a fourth quarter dividend of 20 cents a share, a reduction from the 35 cents paid in each of the previous quarters.

It brought 1957 dividend payments for the nation's largest railroad.

ping charges in New York federal court.

ANTIMISSILE URGED FOR '61

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said Wednesday the administration is being urged by the Army to make an all-out effort to produce an operational antimissile missile by 1961 at a three-year cost of between six and seven billion dollars.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper called it "a dramatic proposal for a defense against the Soviet transpolar intercontinental ballistic missile."

The Times said the proposal has been made to the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Secretary of Defense McElroy by the Army chief of staff, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor.

The story also said in part: On the basis of experiments with components of the Army missile, Nike Zeus, Taylor is convinced that this weapon can be developed with nuclear and thermonuclear warheads to the point where it can track down and destroy the Soviet ICBM.

Taylor has argued that to do so within a three or four-year period, the project must be given top priority in the budget, now under discussion.

Taylor contends that the Soviet Union is making rapid progress in the development of ground-to-air missiles which, he fears, will steadily diminish the effectiveness of the U. S. strategic air force.

Paris (AP)—The French Cabinet Wednesday authorized Premier Felix Gaillard to conscript personnel needed to maintain public services in the event of further strikes hitting the nation.

The move came after Tuesday's 24-hour warning strike by most of the country's million civil servants. Railmen, bus crews, public utility workers and others have all walked off their jobs for limited periods in recent weeks to protest wages lagging behind the cost of living.

The Cabinet's decision is sure to rouse strong protest. Raymond Marcellin, secretary of state in charge of the civil service, opened negotiations with leaders of the government employees who struck yesterday. The men want their basic minimum salary raised from 200,000 to 220,000 francs per year ($476 to $523) plus increased allowances.

The Cabinet also authorized the premier to make Parliament's vote on his revised Algeria home rule bill one of confidence in his government if he judges that necessary.

ASK BACKING ON EXPRESS ROUTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A suggestion that the state support the least controversial route for the proposed Delaware County mid-county expressway has drawn a cool reception from the administration.

Miller said it appears it will be a very long time before the federal bureau acts on the "Yellow Route" while "on the other hand, there is a genuine, immediate and growing need for a highway along the Green Line."

Delay Is Feared
Miller said it appears it will be a very long time before the federal bureau acts on the "Yellow Route" while "on the other hand, there is a genuine, immediate and growing need for a highway along the Green Line."

Answering for the governor, Executive Secretary David V. Randall conceded that the "Green Line" would meet the traffic needs of the area.

But he said he did not think the bureau would approve both routes.

PLOTTING NOISE TO HELP RADIO IS "IGY" WORK

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The seemingly silent heavens above you are actually somewhat like a breakfast cereal — full of pop, crackle and snap.

But you need radio ears to hear all this racket. It is generated by lightning flashes of thunderstorms — 50,000 storms a day throughout the world — and by effects of our sun.

This noise at times can drown out radio reception — which can be pretty critical or downright dangerous if you're in a plane homing on a radio beam, or using radio to navigate a ship, or trying to hear over radio telephones.

Racket Of Stars
Outer space keeps broadcasting noise, too, usually heard as hisses or smoother cracklings, all of it radio talk from distant families of stars.

Charting all this racket — and then trying to predict how loud it will be and when — is one goal of scientists during the International Geophysical Year (IGY.)

With good predictions, radio signals can be stepped up to ride steady and clear over the noise. Or different frequencies can be chosen to get through, or better equipment designed, explains William Crichtlow, chief of the radio noise section of the Boulder Laboratories, National Bureau of Standards here.

Will Help Radio
The knowledge and forecasting of atmospheric noise would benefit every user of radio, reducing the risk of accidents to planes and ships, and improving all kinds of radio communication.

To do this, a world-wide chain of 16 special radio stations is tuning in and recording atmospheric and cosmic noise. The IGY, a 64-nation effort to learn new facts about our world and its natural events, provides a global study of the radio cacophony.

Can Follow Storms
Most of our earth-born static or noise is created by storms. Lightning flashes generate energy at all frequencies. Low frequency noise from thunder storms sometimes can be heard by radio around the world. The heavenly noise varies with season, geography, time of day and sunspot activity. It's noiser at night than in the daytime.

At other times, storm static is bothersome only locally. The sounds are so characteristic that directional antennas can help locate storms far away, or even follow a local weather front, Crichtlow said.

The bureau designed special noise recorders for use at Boulder, at Bill, Wyo., at Byrd Station in the Antarctic, in Hawaii, Greenland, Panama, Brazil, Sweden, Morocco, Nigeria, South Africa, Japan, India, Malaya, and Australia. All will be in operation by the end of this year.

90 Wire Antenna
The listening post of this station, 15 miles away at Gunbarrel Hill, is a wooden building 8 by 12 feet and 8 feet high, nicknamed the doghouse. On the roof is a 21-foot vertical antenna surrounded by a network of 90 wires stretching horizontally from the roof to poles 100 feet away.

Once a day a scientist visits the doghouse calibrating equipment and removing noise recordings.

SUPER SPUD — Airman Thomas Hafford holds 4½-pound potato grown near Caribou, Me. He brought tuber to New Hampshire base to show his buddies why Maine is proud of its potatoes.

traced on graph paper.
Crichtlow and his team at the Boulder Laboratories are recording and analyzing all the data collected during the IGY by all 16 stations. He figures this means 400 readings per day per station, or some 2,800,000 a year. Electronic computing machines make it possible.

Specific Forecasts
Noise forecasting maps have been drawn in the past. IGY findings will make the maps more accurate, not just for general seasonal noise estimates, but for forecasts at more specific times and places, Crichtlow said.

Then radio engineers can know when to step up power to assure reception — just as you speak louder when a truck goes past your house — or what minimum power will get through, or how to improve equipment, or choose the best times on fixed circuits to assure good listening.

FORECAST BIG INCREASE IN CIGARETTE SMOKING

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today it seems likely that Americans will consume about 18 per cent more cigarettes in 1965 than this year.

But the use of tobacco in making cigarettes may not increase more than 5 per cent, the agency said in an outlook report.

The forecast of the 15 per cent increase in use of cigarettes was based upon the assumption that the controversial health aspect of cigarette smoking will have no prolonged adverse effects in consumption.

More Smokers
It also assumes that the number of male smokers will increase about 10 per cent and female smokers at least 33 per cent.

The reason the usage of tobacco is not expected to increase as much as cigarette smoking is that processors are expected to use more and more of the leaf and stem that in the past was discarded.

The report said the number of smokers of cigars and cigarillos may be up about a tenth by 1965. It said future additional regular smokers of cigars are likely to come from the relatively large group who smoke only occasionally.

Consumption of smoking tobacco in pipes and in roll-your-own cigarettes, which has been declining steadily since 1950, is expected by the department to drop another 40 per cent by 1965.

Likewise, a further reduction of 15 per cent in consumption of chewing tobacco was forecast by the future date.

URGES SCHOOL SYSTEM CHANGE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Holland (D-Pa.) said Wednesday the American school system must be reorganized from top to bottom to place greater emphasis on science and engineering and stave off the threat posed by Soviet scientific advances.

Holland urged enactment of a bill he has introduced to create a scholarship and subsidy program for the training of engineering students.

Holland estimated the cost of the program, when in full swing after four years, at upwards of 183 million dollars a year.

The congressman told a news conference that he intends to write President Eisenhower, James R. Killian, heading the new missile development program, and the National Science Foundation for support.

He said the cost of his scholarship-subsidy plan, although considerable, is "small potatoes compared to other subsidies" such as those for agriculture, the air industry, railroads and research.

Queen And Prince Mark Anniversary

LONDON (AP)—Telegrams showered on Buckingham Palace Wednesday as well-wishers of many lands congratulated Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip on their 10th wedding anniversary.

"They have no public engagements, but there was work as usual, and for some hours both were desk-bound," a palace spokesman said.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan sent a message saying he and his colleagues know that in 10 years both "have attained an abiding place in the hearts of the people."

Last night the queen and prince entertained about a dozen friends and relatives at a quiet dinner followed by the showing of a film.

SAY NO SIGNS GAVE WARNING OF NEW TRACKS

MEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — A state official and a union officer agreed today there was no trackside sign to warn the engineer to slow down before his train cracked up while highballing from Montreal to Boston at 70 miles an hour.

The wreck of the Boston & Maine train on Tuesday killed the engineer and fireman and injured 23 others.

A railroad spokesman said the train was traveling at an "excessive speed" at the time it jumped the tracks, smashed against a four-story brick warehouse, and scattered over the roadbed with the diesel engine plummeting off an 11-foot trestle.

The railroad said all crewmen on trains using that line had been warned that temporary tracks were in use and speed was to be reduced to 15 m.p.h.

Railroad officials said also that warning signs were posted in two places in advance of the crash scene.

William Marsden, Massachusetts Department of Public Works, said he walked along the tracks after the crashup and found no signs.

W. Paul Duggan, general chairman of the B. & M. local of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, said he saw the speed tape and agreed the train was going 70 m.p.h. Duggan asserted there were no slow speed warning signs where they should have been along the tracks.

He said the signs were there the day before but had been removed "by persons unknown."

Mike DeJohn, 26-year-old Syracuse heavyweight, is managed by his brother, Johnny, 44.

10,000 Nurses Are Needed In State

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An additional 10,000 nurses are needed in Pennsylvania hospitals and institutions, says Miss Jane Brington of the Extension Service of Pennsylvania State University.

There also is a need for more effective use of the nurses the state already has, Miss Brington said yesterday in an address before the 53rd annual convention of the Pennsylvania Nurses Assn. She said her observations were made from a report on a four-year study of nursing needs in the state.

SAYS U. S. WILL HELP EGYPT

CAIRO (AP)—The morning newspaper Al Ahran said Wednesday the United States is resuming economic aid to Egypt and has agreed to grant $60,000 for a rural development project.

The newspaper said a joint communique today would announce the resumption of U.S. aid, suspended after the Israeli invasion of Egypt in October 1956.

The Middle East News Agency reported on Tuesday that a million dollars had been released from frozen Egyptian assets in the United States. The semiofficial Egyptian agency said the United States released the funds to cover the cost of imports from the United States.

Other amounts previously have been released, the agency said.

The U.S. State Department announced five days after the Israeli invasion that it had blocked new economic aid programs for both Israel and Egypt.

Egypt began receiving American economic aid in 1952 and by November 1956 had been allotted $15 million dollars worth. About $5

DEMS MAY HAVE TOUGH BATTLE FOR GOVERNOR

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The possibility of a three-way battle for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination shaped up today with disclosure by Allegheny County Coroner William S. McClelland that friends are urging him to make another bid for governor.

McClelland says he is "surveying the situation."

Lt. Gov. Roy Furman has been endorsed by some Democratic leaders as their candidate for governor. And Gov. Lawrence, who defeated McClelland for the nomination in 1954 by some 67,000 votes, has indicated that he favors Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth to succeed him.

Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh, a member of the Democratic national committee from Pennsylvania, also has indicated he favors Dilworth.

Andrews For Furman

Rep. H. C. Andrews of Johnstown, former speaker of the House and now assistant Democratic floor leader, came out Tuesday in favor of Furman for the nomination.

Last night, after McClelland said he had been urged to seek the nomination, State Democratic Chairman Joseph Barr declined comment on the McClelland statement. Barr said:

"I have no candidates. My job is to get everybody together."

McClelland, regarded as one of the top vote getters in Allegheny County, has often been at odds politically with Mayor Lawrence. But in a recent election campaign both worked together.

Lawrence, McClelland Win

Lawrence was swept into his fourth term with the largest majority he ever rolled up. McClelland trounced his Republican opponent, being re-elected to his fifth term as coroner by nearly a 130,000 vote majority.

In backing Furman, Rep. Andrews came out for Gov. Lawrence as the U. S. senatorial candidate; U. S. Rep. William J. Green for lieutenant-governor, and Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader for secretary of internal affairs.

Republican State Chairman, George I. Bloom, was quick to comment on Andrews' action, saying it "confirms how divided the Democrats really are." Bloom added:

Other Contests

"He (Andrews) would never have risked the dangerous role of peacemaker unless the situation in his party was truly desperate."

McClelland said there have been reports that former U. S. Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery of Philadelphia may seek the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senate. Sen. Edward Martin of Washington, Pa., a Republican, is not seeking re-election.

STAR LIGHT — Yul Brynner, a camera hobbyist, holds meter for light reading as he takes time on Hollywood set of "The Brothers Karamazov" to photograph co-star Maria Schell.

McClelland emphasized that he will not "under any circumstances" be considered a possible candidate for U. S. Senate. If he runs for a state office, it will be governor, he said, adding:

"A McGranery-McClelland ticket would seem to have good possibilities. McGranery is an outstanding Democrat from eastern Pennsylvania."

ANASTASIA KIN UNDER ARREST

NEW YORK (AP) — The federal government has taken steps to put Vincent J. Squillante, self-styled godson of murdered mobster Albert Anastasia and reputed garbage racket kingpin, in prison for the first time in his career.

The 5-foot-1 silent witness at last week's Senate hearings on gangster control of the garbage carting industry here was hauled into federal court on Tuesday and charged with violating probation by consorting with known criminals and hoodlums. He also was accused of concealing his 1956 income from the federal probation department.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman set Monday for a hearing on a petition to revoke Squillante's probation. Bail was set at $10,000, which the former fruit peddler posted.

Squillante, 40, has been on probation since 1953, when he pleaded guilty to a 1950 government charge of failing to file 1948 and 1949 income tax returns. He also received a $1,000 fine and a suspended sentence.

PEPITORIA IS CALLED A FINE COMPANY DISH

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you enjoy chicken and rice you will do well to look to Spain. Taking our own advice, we've borrowed an utterly delightful Spanish recipe — Pepitoria of Chicken — that deserves to be as well known as that country's Paella and Arroz con Pollo.

For the Pepitoria, the chicken is browned in olive oil and then cooked in an enchanting sauce made with onions, saffron and other seasonings, almonds, hard-cooked egg yolks and ham. We find it can be prepared ahead and reheated successfully; served with rice and green peas it's a delicious main dish for a company supper.

You might preface the Pepitoria of Chicken with tomatoes stuffed with seafood. For dessert, an orange mousse garnished with seedless green grapes will be refreshing and attractive. Petits fours and black coffee will make a perfect ending.

Pepitoria of Chicken
Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer (about 2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight), 1½ cups water, salt, 3 tablespoons olive oil, 1 large onion (finely chopped), ½ cup ham (sliced), ¼ cup unblanched shelled almonds, 2 medium-sized cloves garlic, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 2 hard-cooked egg yolks.

Method: Have chicken cut into 12 pieces; wash and drain. Place wing tips, neck, giblets and extra pieces of skin in water with a little salt; cover and bring to a boil; simmer about 30 minutes; strain and reserve stock. Meanwhile brown remaining chicken pieces in olive oil in 10-inch skillet; remove. Add onion and ham to oil in skillet and cook gently, stirring often, until onion is softened but not brown. Remove chicken and onion mixture. Brown almonds in olive oil left in pan; add a little more oil if necessary. Pound almonds, garlic, parsley and ½ teaspoon salt with a pestle in a mortar until paste-like; mix in egg yolks; gradually stir in 1 cup of the strained chicken stock. Return chicken and onion mixture to skillet; add sauce. Finish cooking chicken by simmering, covered, about 20 to 30 minutes or until tender. Serve over hot cooked rice.

STYLED FOR SOVIET — Rome tailor Angelo Litrico works on coat, part of wardrobe of two suits and two coats ordered from him by Soviet Communist chief Nikita Khrushchev.

Makes 4 servings.

Note: If you do not have a mortar and pestle, you can put the unblanched almonds through the fine blade of a food chopper or a rotary-type grater, then crush the garlic with the salt and work almonds, garlic and parsley together. If you do not have a garlic crusher,

SAYS EUROPEAN READINESS FOR A-ARMS CAN BE ACHIEVED NOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said today he believes European readiness to use American nuclear weapons in wartime can be achieved without amending the Atomic Energy Act.

"I generally favor increased cooperation with our allies in this field and if an amendment to the law is regarded as necessary by the administration, I would give it serious and sympathetic consideration," Gore said in an interview.

"But as of now I know of no such need and none has been indicated to the Senate-House committee."

Gore's statement reflects, in mind the garlic fine, then mix it with the salt and crush with the heavy wide blade of a knife until it disintegrates. A few shreds of saffron may be dissolved in the chicken stock and added.

part, the kind of opposition in Congress which some think might force some compromises in the administration's announced intention to seek a freer exchange of scientific atomic information with U.S. allies.

President Eisenhower has said he will ask Congress to lift some of the secrecy provisions of the Atomic Energy Act.

The proposal has drawn a mixed, and none too favorable, reaction from Senate-House Atomic Energy committeemen, of whom Gore is one. Chairman Durham (D-NC), among others, has questioned the adequacy of security systems in nations which would get such secret information.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles appear determined to seek some lowering of the secrecy ban. But some members of Congress obviously are beginning to see a possible way around this in Dulles' proposal to establish stockpiles of American atomic weapons in Europe.

Under U.S. Control These weapons would be earmarked for Allied use in the event of war, but would remain under technical control of the United States and thus would not violate existing law governing disposal of such weapons.

The act prevents the divulging of information about the design

PSU FRESHMAN MISSING 9 DAYS

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The parents of Thomas J. Rhoad, 18-year-old Pennsylvania State University freshman missing since Nov. 12 from the school campus, hoped today for news of their son.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rhoad of 143 N. Fountain St. said they believe their son is "suffering from amnesia" as a result of a mishap in a wrestling match Nov. 11.

Young Rhoad, described by university officials as a popular student with a high academic average, is 5 foot 9½, 155 pounds, has blue eyes and light brown crew-cut hair. He was believed wearing striped gray trousers, a heavy gray and white wool sweater and a dark brown tweed overcoat.

His father, a warehouse manager, could offer no other explanation for young Rhoad's disappearance other than amnesia, a loss of memory due to what was believed a slight head injury suffered while wrestling.

California experiments show that some plants can grow without other water, if they have early morning dew regularly.

FIRE LASSIES TAKE OVER FOR MISSING MALES

By DALE BURGESS

FRUITDALE, Ind. (AP) — Nobody laughs at Fruitdale's housewife fire brigade.

Most of the men in this hill country community have daytime jobs in Indianapolis, 35 miles away.

That situation could leave the Fruitdale Volunteer Fire Department unmanned about 10 hours a day, but it has an enthusiastic day shift — all women.

When the Fruitdale pumper screeches up to a daytime fire, it's manned by six or eight women in house dresses or slacks — whatever they happened to be wearing when the siren blew. They leap off, grab fire axes and hose nozzles, and attack the blaze with a kind of controlled fury.

Everybody in the southern Indiana hills hates and fears fire with an intensity felt only in areas where there are few wells and streams often go dry. When a fire gets a good start, not much can be done about it. Blackened chimneys and gaping cellars are scattered about the countryside.

Few Could Serve

When the Fruitdale community organized its volunteer fire department three years ago, it was discovered the few of the 52 male members were available in the daytime. The 55 women of the auxiliary simply took over as a matter of course. About a dozen are especially eager fire fighters and make almost every run.

Speed is the essence in fighting dry-country fires and the first few women who reach the station roll out the truck and start to the blaze. They leave one behind to give later arrivals the location and they follow in their own automobiles.

Use Chemicals, Tank

The girls battle house fires with chemicals and hose from an 860-gallon tank of water, filled at Morgantown, three miles north of Fruitdale. They wallop grass fires with big squares of matting fastened to long handles and wet down burning brush with portable fire extinguishers and the tank hose.

None of the women volunteers has had any professional training in fire fighting.

"It seems to us when there's a fire, you just put it out," says president Betty P. Bailey of the auxiliary.

Aid Other Firemen

The girls have put out dozens. Some weeks in the spring and fall dry seasons they make three or four runs a week. They're always ready to go outside their community to help firemen fight big blazes in nearby towns.

Fruitdale housewives are so sensitive to smoke that they often start gathering at the station before the alarm is given. Some of their calls come from the forest fire lookout tower at Brown County State Park almost 20 miles away.

When the department was organized, the Morgantown telephone operators called the Fruitdale volunteers with five rings on their party lines. Now the community has dial telephones and fires are reported to the nearby auto service station of Morris and Mary Haggard. They turn on the fire station siren.

The firewomen drop their washing or peach canning and go after the blaze.

ORRTANNA—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burtner, Keedysville, Md., visited over the weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Roger Burtner.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple and son, Lowell, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Fissel, and son, Jeffrey, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Brady Hill, Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCrone and children, Karen and Diane, returned to New Castle, Delaware, after a visit with Mrs. McCrone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spence.

Mrs. Raymond Pepple and son, Lowell, visited Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weaver, Hagerstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Vandreau and daughter, Ruby, Quincy, visited the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Saum, at the H. B. Saum home, Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Stoops, Fayetteville, spent the weekend with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Haines and family.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.) accused the administration Wednesday of withholding money appropriated for missile development. He called in defense officials for an accounting.

Mahon heads a House appropriations subcommittee which handles defense money allotments.

Summoned before that group for a quickly called closed-door session were Secretary of Defense McElroy and William Holaday, assistant to the secretary for missile development.

Dugan Aycock, president of the Carolina section of the PGA for 15 years, has two former assistants as top pro golfers. They are Skip Alexander and Clayton Heafner.

Four members of Army's varsity soccer team come from Philadelphia. They are Kermit Henninger, Ray Baugh, Nick Krawciw and Fred Manzo.
